IMPORTANT EVENTS

Vikas Kumar & ors. vs. Union of India and ors.

- 1984 The Parliament of India enacted the Act namely "The Indian Veterinary Council Act, 1984 Act" and the Act provides to regulate Veterinary practice and to provide, for that purpose, for the establishment of a Veterinary Council of India and the State Veterinary Council and the maintenance of registers of the Veterinary Practitioners and for matter connected therewith. The same are reproduced in para 2 of writ petition.
- 22.08.2003 The Government of Rajasthan issued notification under 1984 Act granting approval to the veterinary & livestock assistant, holding a diploma or certificate or veterinary supervisor, stockman or stock assistants (by whatever name called) issued by the Directorate of Animal Husbandry of Govt. of Rajasthan or issued by the recognized veterinary institution and countersigned by the Director of Animal Husbandry to render the "minor veterinary services" under the supervision and direction of a registered veterinary practitioner.
- 1999 The Governor of Haryana was pleased to promulgate Rules called, "Haryana Veterinary Headquarter & Field (Group C) Service Rules, 1999" which came into effect on July 29, 1999. The Rules provide qualification and mode of appointment. Under 1999 Rules, the qualification for the posts of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant by direct recruitment is Matric or its equivalent and 2 Years Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant Diploma course from any recognised University with Knowledge of Hindi upto Matric standard.

28.02.2011 The Govt. of Haryana issued Notification dated 28.02.2011 amending the Haryana Veterinary Headquarter & Field (Group C) Service Rules, 1999 by the rules called The Haryana Veterinary Headquarter & Field (Group C) Service (Amendment) Rules, 2011. As per amended Rules, the qualification for the post of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant is Matric or its equivalent from any recognized Board/ University ; Two year Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant diploma course from Chaudhary Charan Singh University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences, Hisar or any other institution recognized / approved by the Haryana Government, as specified in Appendix-E, with Knowledge of Hindi / Sanskrit upto Matric standard or higher education.

-- All the Petitioners possess the qualification of Senior Secondary School Examination from Board of School Education and are also possessing the Two years Animal Husbandry Diploma course from the Faculty of Veterinary and Animal Science of Rajasthan Agricultural University, presently, known as Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner. In this regard, a note has been mentioned below the mark sheets of the petitioner who have completed their diplomas from Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Science, Bikaner and the same is reproduced in para 7 of writ petition.

04.06.2009 Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, Rajasthan is an approved and recognized University by the Haryana Animal Husbandry Department at Serial No. 21 in Appendix 'E' of 2011 amended Rules. The name of the Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, Rajasthan was changed through notification dated June 04, 2009 by the Governor of Rajasthan. The Diploma of Rajasthan Agricultural University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner, Rajasthan is equivalent to the course of VLDA issued by Chaudhary Charan Singh University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences, Hisar and same has been recognized / approved by the Haryana State.

28.02.2011 As per Gazette Notification dated 28.2.2011 issued by Government of Haryana, the Rajasthan Agricultural University (RAU) Bikaner, Rajasthan is recognized university. It is further clarified that in the State of Rajasthan, the said post is called as L.S.A. and in Haryana the same post is called as VLDA. However, the qualification for the said post is the same and syllabus is also same but only the nomenclature of diploma/certificate is different.

2011 As per Haryana Veterinary Headquarter and Field (Group-C) Service (Amendment) Rules, 2011, a candidate is required to pass a particular diploma namely Veterinary and Livestock Development Diploma from Chaudhary Charan Singh Agricultural University or the other Universities mentioned in Appendix-E of these Rules. However, it is relevant to mention here that no other university has named its diploma similar to the name of diploma issued by the Chaudhary Charan Singh Agricultural University i.e. VLDA. However, the duration of the course completed by the petitioners from Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner i.e. Diploma in Animal Husbandry and Veterinary and Livestock Development and the Diploma obtained from Chaudhary Charan Singh Agricultural University, Hisar is of two years. Further as per the syllabus, the subjects are almost identical. More so, the core subjects are absolutely same, therefore, both qualifications can be recognized as equal.

24.09.2014. Respondent No.3 wrote to Respondent No.4 i.e. Secretary, Haryana Staff Selection Commission, Panchkula with regard to the clarification of academic qualification for the post of VLDA in Animal Husbandry & Dairying Department, Haryana clarifying that the post of VLDA has not requisite diploma of Veterinary & Livestock Development, rather it is diploma in Animal Husbandry from Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner.

-- As per the contention of respondent No. 3 in its letter dated 24.9.2014 that two courses cannot be equated as the diploma courses of petitioners is only specified for the State of Rajasthan, is not sustainable in view of the objectives of the programme as contained in the prospectus of Animal Husbandry Diploma Programme issued by Rajasthan Agricultural University, reproduced in para 12.

--. Except the subject of English and Animal Product Technology, all the other subjects of both the universities are identical and cover the syllabus required for Live Stock Assistants in both the States. Regarding subject of English/English grammar, the standards of criteria for admission in Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner is higher than that of Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Hisar.

--. The impugned action of respondents No. 2 and 3 entering the name of particular diploma of Veterinary and Live Stock Development Diploma in the Impugned Rules, thereby restricting the equivalence qualification from other recognized universities, violates Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution of India when the rules itself recognizes other universities.

-- Candidates of both the categories form one class for the purposes of seeking appointment and they have right to be considered for the same. In fact, considering the candidates who passed a Veterinary and Livestock Development Diploma from Chaudhary Charan Singh Agricultural University and excluding those who passed similar qualification from other recognized institutions amounts to irrational classification in violation of Article 16 of the Constitution as well.

-- It implies that a preference is given in public appointments to the students of Haryana state as the diploma mentioned in the impugned rules is not provided / awarded by any other recognized universities mentioned in Appendix E of impugned rules itself. The Hon'ble Supreme Court has recognized institution preference only in admission to educational institutes, as a constitutionally permissible mechanism. However, "Institutional preference" cannot be used in public employment.

-- The requirement of a selected candidates to have completed Veterinary and Livestock Development Diploma as it is granted by Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Science, Hisar is also not rational. The petitioners are possessing the qualification of Diploma in Animal Husbandry from Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner is in line with the qualifications as prescribed by the Veterinary Council of India, the requirement of VLDD qualifications, in the impugned advertisement, even states that the candidates qualification should be from Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Science, Hisar only as except this University no other university as recognized by the respondent's department provides exactly the diploma of the same name.

16.06.2015 Respondent No. 3 issued an advertisement for filling up 785 posts of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant (VLDA) in Animal Husbandry and Dairying Development, Haryana purely on contractual basis for a period of one year or as per the outsourcing policy of the State Government dated 16.06.2015. The requisite qualifications for the posts of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant as prescribed in the advertisement have been reproduced in para 18 of writ petition.

-- All the petitioners, being fully eligible and qualified as per the advertisement dated 16.06.2015, applied for the posts of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant well in time by annexing all the requisite documents.

22.07.2015 Respondent No.3 displayed a List of eligible candidates for the posts of VLDA on contractual basis on 22.7.2015 against the Employment Notice dated 16.6.2015 mentioning therein the roll number-wise list of eligible candidates and asked them to appear for the verification of documents/interview. However, the names of the petitioners did not find mention in the list of eligible candidates.

-- The petitioners visited the office of Respondent No. 3 and submitted written representation to consider them as eligible candidates and issue them duplicate interview call letters.

28.07.2015 When no heed was paid to the request, petitioners filed CWP No.15352 of 2015 titled as Vikas Kumar & ors. vs. State of Haryana & ors. which came up for hearing before Hon'ble Mr. Justice Ajay Tewari on 28.07.2015 and his lordship was pleased to issue notice of motion for 04.02.2016 and further directed to provisionally interview the petitioners for the post of VLDA.

-- Petitioners were provisionally called for interview by Respondent No.3. They appeared, included in select list, but finally writ was dismissed.

10.07.2015 Haryana Staff Selection Commission issued advertisement dated 10.07.2015 inviting applications from the eligible candidates for 797 posts of VLDA on regular basis( including GC-198,BCA-106, BCB-58 & EPG-79). The advertisement contained the same qualification for the post of VLDA as contained in the impugned Rules.

02.11.2015 Some of petitioners earlier filed CWP No.23340 of 2015 challenging vires of 2011 Rules which came up for hearing before Hon'ble Division Bench comprising Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rajive Bhalla and Hon'ble Mrs. Justice Rekha Mittal on 02.11.2015 and their lordships were pleased to issue Notice of Motion for 03.12.2015.

18.11.2015 After issuance of notice of motion, petitioners came to know about the advertisement dated 10.07.2015. In pursuance to said advertisement, all the petitioners made an attempt to apply on-line for the post of VLDA, but in the absence of option of AHD, i.e. the name of diploma possessed by the, they failed to apply. Accordingly, they immediately moved CM No.14834 of 2015 for permission to withdraw the aforesaid writ petition with liberty to file afresh one on the same cause of action by incorporating the challenge to the advertisement dated 10.07.2015. The aforesaid CM Application came up for hearing before a Division Bench on 18.11.2015 and their lordships were pleased to allow the application.

-- 71 candidates including petitioners were called for provisional interview in pursuance of the directions issued by this Hon'ble Court for provisional consideration for recruitment on contract basis against the posts of VLDA advertised vide advertisement dated 16.06.2015, but Respondent No.3 could find only 500 candidates eligible as per the impugned Rules against 785 posts of VLDA advertised for recruitment on contract basis for a period of one year or till regular selection and all the candidates who as per the impugned rules were eligible, were selected and figured in the list uploaded by Respondent No.3 for recruitment on contract basis.

2015 Aggrieved by the action of the respondents in prescribing the qualification of Two Years Diploma in Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant in the amended rules of 2011, denying the petitioners the right of consideration for the post of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant, some of candidates including petitioners No.1 to 6 filed CWP No.24664/2015-Anoop Singh & ors. vs. UOI & ors. and petitioners No.7 to 10 filed CWP No.1495 of 2015- Lajja Ram & ors. vs. State of Haryana & ors. in this Hon'ble High Court.

- 10.12.2015 Respondents filed short reply by way of affidavit whereby the respondents stated that education imparted by the Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner to the student of 2 Years Animal Husbandry Diploma does not match with that of the course of VLDA of Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary & Animal Science, Hisar.
- 07.01.2016 The written statement was also filed on behalf of respondents No.2 & 3 reproducing therein the curriculum of Two Year Diploma in Veterinary and Livestock Development from LUVAS, Hisar and Diploma Course in Animal Husbandry from RAJUVAS, Bikaner and trying to show the variation in the subjects being taught by both the Institutions.
- 28.01.2016 Petitioners filed CM No.1334-1335 on 28.01.2016 and brought on record the Examination notice dated 15.01.2016 and also prayed for restraining Respondent No.4 from filling up the posts of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant advertised vide Advertisement dated 10.07.2015 or to allow them to sit in the written examination which was held on 21.02.2016.
- 10.02.2016 Hon'ble Court was pleased to allow the petitioners to sit in the examination without any special equities in their favour subject to outcome of writ petition.
- 08.02.2016 Petitioners filed Replication dated 08.02.2016 to the written statement of Respondents No.2 & 3, and also placed on record certain letters as Annexures P-30 to P-38 alongwith the Replication to the Written Statement. In reply to preliminary submissions, the petitioners, so far as the reference to the decision in CWP No.15171, 15238 & 18708 of 2015 titled as Pritam Kumar vs. Animal Husbandry &

Dairying Department, Haryana is concerned, stated that in the said writ petitions, the vires of the relevant rules were not challenged and as such, it is not applicable in view of the relief sought in the writ petition filed by the petitioners. It was also mentioned that all the topics studied during 2 years diploma course in Veterinary & Livestock Development from Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Hisar are covered during study in 2 years of Diploma course in Animal Husbandry from Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Science, Bikaner and make the candidate who has done 2 years diploma course in Animal Husbandry from RAJUVAS, Bikaner eligible to perform 'minor veterinary services'. The petitioners further brought to notice the letters granting affiliation for the years 2009-10, 2010-11, 2012-13, 2013-14, 2014-15 & 2015-16 by the Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner to private institutes for running Diploma of 2 years duration in Animal Husbandry.

23.01.2017 The petitioners also CM No.104/2017 bringing on record the list of successful candidates displayed on the official website. The roll nos. of petitioners except petitioner No.16 in Anoop Singh writ who could not appear in the test, were shown in the list of successful candidates. They appeared for verification of documents on 20.01.2017. When the writ petitions came up for hearing before Hon'ble Court on 25.01.2017, the Hon'ble Bench directed respondents to interview petitioners provisionally but their result be kept in sealed cover.

- 24.03.2017 The result was declared on 24.03.2017. Petitioners were surprised not find their roll numbers in the result finally declared.
- 17.05.2017 Writ petitions alongwith a bunch of writ petitions came up for final hearing on 17.05.2017. Hon'ble Bench was pleased to dispose of the writs filed by candidates like petitioners granting liberty to petitioners to represent to the Director General, Animal Husbandry, Haryana who, in turn, was directed to constitute a team of three experts to examine the curriculum/syllabus of these Diplomas vis-à-vis Diplomas in VLDA Course and if it is found that their Diploma Courses are broadly the same, these petitioners be treated eligible irrespective of the nomenclature of the Diplomas.
- 31.05.2017 In compliance with the order dated 17.05.2017 the petitioners submitted a joint representation to the Director, Animal Husbandry, Haryana on 31.05.2017 and the same was sent by the counsel for the petitioners vide implementation notice dated 31.05.2017 to the Director, Animal Husbandry to comply with the order of the Hon'ble Court.
- 24.09.2017 The Committee of Experts constituted by Director General, Animal Husbandry & Dairying, Haryana, submitted its report on 04.09.2017 without examining the contents of all Topics and on the basis of the report of Expert Committee, Respondent No.3 sent reply to the implementation notice to the counsel for the petitioner as per which, significant differences have been reported by the committee of experts, which infers that curriculum & syllabus of the Two years Animal Husbandry Diploma imparted by Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences (RAJUVAS), Bikaner is significantly different from that of 2-Years Veterinary Livestock Development Diploma awarded by Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences (LUVAS), Hisar and as such, the petitioners do not fulfill the requisite qualification for the post of VLDA and are not eligible for the said post.

--. Report of Expert Committee which has been made the basis of impugned order dated 24.10.2017 is without application of mind, without comparing the contents of Topics studied by the candidates like the petitioners and has been prepared completely ignoring the mandate of this Hon'ble Court. The comparison of course contents, observations of committee and the comments of the petitioners are given in an annotated form in para 36.

- As per the chart, the petitioners have shown against observations of the Expert Committee the subject/topics studied by them in the 2 Year Diploma obtained by them from RAJUVAS and tried to justify the equivalence and being identical to the diploma imparted by LUVAS, Rather, the petitioners have shown that some subjects which they have studied during 2 years of Diploma were introduced by LUVAS in 2013 only and accordingly, they have annexed some mark sheets of 2006 to 2012 & of 2013.

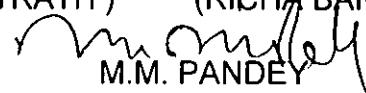

12.06.2009 In response to RTI application of one Rama Devi W/o Ram Dayal asking Respondent No.3 vide letter dated 27.03.2017 supplied a copy of letter written to Secretary, Haryana Staff Selection Commission, Panchkula with which a list of 22 Institutions from where the candidates had obtained 2 Years Diploma in Veterinary & Livestock Development course, was enclosed and the Commission was apprised of the valid and acceptable diploma obtained from various universities/institutions.

- 04.02.2010 It is evident from the perusal of said list of institutions with letter dt.04.02.2010 that the candidates in the said list at Sr.No.13- Sarjeet Kumar S/o Brij Lal and Sr.No.14- Jitender Singh Rajawat S/o Shakti Singh Rajawat, had obtained 2 Years Animal Husbandry Diploma in 2008 from Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner (BBMS Animal Husbandry College, Jaipur) Private Institute affiliated to RAU, Bikaner and the same has been accepted to be valid.
- 29.12.2017 Under the RTI Act, the commission supplied the copy of final result vide letter dt.29.12.2017 and also informed that all 198 posts of general category have been filled up but posts in other categories are lying vacant, as reproduced in para 40.
- 23.11.2017 Out of total 561 candidates declared selected against 785 posts advertised on contract basis vide Advt.dt.16.06.2015, 443 were selected on regular basis in response to Advt. dated 10.07.2015 and remaining 118 candidates are working on contract basis whose contract has been extended vide letter dated 23.11.2017 from 19.10.17 to 18.10.18.
- . Petitioners have also come to know that some of the candidates possessing the qualification of B.V.Sc. have also been selected and appointed against the post of VLDA whereas the qualification of B.V.Sc. was not desirable in the advertisement issued by the HSSC and they do not deserve to be appointed against the post of VLDA.
- Hence, the present writ petition.

RESPECTIVELY SHOWETH:-

1. That the petitioners are citizens of India and residents of the State of Haryana and as such, are entitled to invoke the extraordinary writ jurisdiction of this Hon'ble High Court by way of filing the present writ petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India.
2. That the Parliament of India enacted the Act namely "The Indian Veterinary Council Act, 1984 Act" and the Act provides to regulate Veterinary practice and to provide, for that purpose, for the establishment of a Veterinary Council of India and the State Veterinary Council and the maintenance of registers of the Veterinary Practitioners and for matter connected therewith. Chapter-IV of the Act provides privileges of registered Veterinary Practitioners. Section-30 of the Act in Chapter-IV provides rights of persons who are enrolled on the Indian Veterinary Practitioners Registers which are as under:-

30. Right of persons who are enrolled on the Indian veterinary practitioners register. – No. person, other than a registered veterinary practitioner, shall –

- (a) hold office as veterinary physician or surgeon or any other like office (by whatever name called) in Government or in any institution maintained by a local or other authority;
- (b) practise veterinary medicine in any State :
Provided that the State Government may, by order, permit a person holding a diploma or certificate of veterinary supervisor, stockman or stock assistant (by whatever name called) issued by the Directorate of Animal Husbandry (by whatever name called) of any State or any veterinary institution in India, to render under the supervision and direction of a registered veterinary practitioner, minor veterinary services.

Explanation – “Minor veterinary services” means the rendering of preliminary veterinary aid, like, vaccination, castration and dressing of wounds, and such other type of preliminary aid or the treatment of such ailments as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette specify in this behalf.

(c) be entitled to sign or authenticate a veterinary health certificate or any other certificate required by any law to be signed or authenticated by duly qualified veterinary practitioner;

(d) be entitled to give evidence at any inquest or in any court of law as an expert under section 45 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, on any matter relating to veterinary medicine.

3. That the Government of Rajasthan issued notification dated 22.08.2003, in exercise of powers conferred by the proviso to Clause (b) of section 30 of the Indian Veterinary Council Act, 1984, to the effect that the State Govt. grants approval to the veterinary & livestock assistant, holding a diploma or certificate or veterinary supervisor, stockman or stock assistants (by whatever name called) issued by the Directorate of Animal Husbandry of Govt. of Rajasthan or issued by the recognized veterinary institution and countersigned by the Director of Animal Husbandry to render the “minor veterinary services” under the supervision and direction of a registered veterinary practitioner. Copy of the notification dated 22.08.2003 is annexed as Annexure P-1.

4. That in exercise of the powers under proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution of India, Governor of Haryana was pleased to promulgate Rules called, “Haryana Veterinary Headquarter & Field (Group C) Service Rules, 1999” which came into effect when it was published In the official Gazette on July 29, 1999. The Rules provide qualification and mode of appointment. For the kind perusal of this Hon’ble High Court, the qualifications required under

1999 Rules for the posts of Veterinary Livestock Development
Assistant are reproduced as under:-

Sr. No.	Designation of post	Academic qualifications & experience, if any, for direct recruitment	Academic qualifications & experience, if any, for appointment other than by direct recruitment
27	Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant	i) Matric or its equivalent from any recognized University/Board/Institution ii) 2 Years Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant Diploma course from any recognised University. iii) Knowledge of Hindi upto Matric standard	XXXX XXXX

5. That the Govt. of Haryana issued Notification dated 28.02.2011 amending the Haryana Veterinary Headquarter & Field (Group C) Service Rules, 1999 by the rules called The Haryana Veterinary Headquarter & Field (Group C) Service (Amendment) Rules, 2011. For the kind perusal of this Hon'ble High Court, the qualification as per amended Rules for the post of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant is reproduced as under :-

1. Matric or its equivalent from any recognized Board, University or Institution;
2. Two year Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant diploma course from Chaudhary Charan Singh University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences, Hisar or any other institution recognized / approved by the Haryana Government, as specified in Appendix-E.
3. Knowledge of Hindi / Sanskrit upto Matric standard or higher education.

Copy of the notification dated 28.02.2011 is annexed as

Annexure P-2.

6. That all the Petitioners possess the qualification of Senior Secondary School Examination from Board of School Education and are also possessing the Two years Animal Husbandry Diploma course from the Faculty of Veterinary and Animal Science of Rajasthan Agricultural University, the name of which university was later changed as Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, Rajasthan and presently, known as Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner. Petitioner No. 1, 2, 6, 8, 9 and 10 belong to General categories, Petitioner No. 3 belongs to BCA category, Petitioner No. 4 belongs to BCB category, Petitioner No. 5 belongs to B.C. category and Petitioner No. 7 belongs to EBPG category. Photocopies of 2 Years Animal Husbandry Diploma Course of all the petitioners are annexed as Annexure P-3 to P-12 respectively.

7. That the petitioners have passed their respective Animal Husbandry Diploma courses from the Faculty of Veterinary & Animal Science of Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, Rajasthan earlier know as Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner and presently called, Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner, Rajasthan. In this regard, the relevant portion of the note mentioned below the mark sheets of the petitioners who have completed their diplomas from Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Science, Bikaner is reproduced below for the kind perusal of this Hon'ble Court:

"The Government of Rajasthan in exercise of the power conferred by provisions in sub clause (b) of section 30 of the Indian Veterinary Council Act, 1984 [through amendment of earlier gazette notification [order of Department of Animal Husbandry, Government of Rajasthan No. 2(5)/AH/2003 dated 29.7.2006-S.O. 161 amending earlier order of even number dated 22.8.2003- No. F 4(2) Vidhi/2/2009 dated 9.6.2009 has notified that the name of the Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner shall be the Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University Bikaner and any reference to the earlier name shall be read and construed as a reference to the later, as altered by this notification.) From 13.5.2010, the Faculty of Veterinary and Animal Science of Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University has become a unit of the Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences Bikaner vide Rajasthan Gazette Notification Extraordinary dated 13.5.2010 [S.O. 108-No.2(25)AH/2009.]"

Copy of the Ordinance No.2 of 2009 dated 04.06.2009

vide which name of the Rajasthan Agricultural University was changed to Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, Rajasthan is annexed as Annexure P-13.

8. That the Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, Rajasthan is an approved and recognized University by the Haryana Animal Husbandry Department at Serial No. 21 in Appendix 'E' of 2011 amended rules. The name of the Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, Rajasthan was changed through notification dated June 04, 2009 by the Governor of Rajasthan. The certificate of Diploma in Animal Husbandry of Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, Rajasthan and of Rajasthan Agricultural University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner, Rajasthan is equivalent to the diploma certificate of VLDA issued by Chaudhary Charan Singh University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences, Hisar and same has been recognized / approved by the Haryana State. It is specially mentioned that there is no other diploma in Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, Rajasthan earlier, known as Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner and now called the Rajasthan Agricultural University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences, Bikaner, except one passed by the petitioners.

9. That it is also relevant to mention here that as per Gazette Notification dated 28.2.2011 (Annexure P-2) issued by Government of Haryana, the Rajasthan Agricultural University (RAU) Bikaner, Rajasthan is recognized university. It is further clarified that in the State of Rajasthan, the said post is called as L.S.A. and in Haryana the same post is called as VLDA. However, the qualification for the said post is the same and syllabus is also same but only the nomenclature of diploma/certificate is different.

10. That even further as per the Haryana Veterinary Headquarter and Field (Group-C) Service (Amendment) Rules, 2011, a candidate is required to pass a particular diploma namely Veterinary and Livestock Development Diploma from Chaudhary Charan Singh Agricultural University or the other Universities mentioned in Appendix-E of these Rules. However, it is relevant to mentioned here that no other university has named its diploma similar to the name of diploma issued by the Chaudhary Charan Singh Agricultural University i.e. VLDA. However, the duration of the course completed by the petitioners from Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner i.e. Diploma in Animal Husbandry and Veterinary and Livestock Development and the Diploma obtained from Chaudhary Charan Singh Agricultural University, Hisar is of two years. Further as per the syllabus, the subjects are almost identical. More so, the core subjects are absolutely same, therefore, both qualifications can be recognized as equal, a further classification on the basis of the requirement of having a particular named diploma i.e. Veterinary and Livestock Development Diploma amounts to absolute institutional preference and is contrary to Article 14 of the Constitution.. The categorization of the candidates in two classes, one who have passed VLDD (Veterinary and Livestock Development Diploma) and others who have passed the Diploma in Animal Husbandry from other recognized university from other states is arbitrary and discriminatory and does not come within the purview of permissible classification. As per Article 16 of the Constitution of India, all the citizens have equal opportunity in matters of public employment. In this regard, a comparative chart of the syllabus of the Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Science, Hisar (Formerly Chaudhary) Charan Singh University, Hisar) and that of Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner is reproduced below:-

5.	Introduction to Reproduction, AI and Storage of Semen	Introductory Animal Reproduction-II
6.	Introduction to Clinical Procedures & Animal Farm Practices	Partly studied in Introductory Animal Breeding and Partly in Minor Veterinary Surgery-II.

11. That it is also relevant to mention that Respondent No.3 vide letter dated 24.9.2014 issued to Respondent No.4 i.e. Secretary, Haryana Staff Selection Commission, Panchkula with regard to the clarification regarding academic qualification for the post of VLDA, clarified that the candidate having passed Diploma in Animal Husbandry from Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, does not have requisite diploma of Veterinary & Livestock Development as it is not equivalent by giving details of certain variation in Topics/Subjects without going into the contents of Topics studied by a candidate who has passed Two Years Diploma course from the Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner. Copy of the communication dated 24.09.2014 sent by Respondent No.3 to the Secretary, Haryana Staff Selection Commission is annexed as Annexure P-14.

12. That as per the contention of respondent No. 3 in its letter dated 24.9.2014 (Annexure P-15) that two courses cannot be equated as the diploma courses of petitioners is only specified for the State of Rajasthan is not sustainable in view of the objectives of the programme as contained in the prospectus of Animal Husbandry Diploma Programme issued by Rajasthan Agricultural University, which is reproduced as under:

“Programme shall be imparting educational qualification through which diploma holders shall become eligible to render, under the supervision and direction of a registered veterinary practitioner. Minor veterinary Service, as per the provision of the Section 30 (b) and its explanation, of the Indian Veterinary Council Act, 1984. The state government has already defined minor veterinary services (Rajasthan Gazette Extraordinary Part 4(G) Upkhand (II) notification dated 28.8.2003 of the department of Animal Husbandry No. 2(5)AH/2003 dated 22.8.2003, SO No. 226 and 221) and by order, permitted a person holding Diploma issued by RAU to render such services- (Rajasthan Gazette Extraordinary part 4(G) Upkhand (II) notification dated 1.8.2006 of the Department of Animal Husbandry No. 2(5) AH/2003 dated 29.7.2006, SO No. 161)”

13. That except the subject of English and Animal Product Technology, all the other subjects of both the universities are identical and cover the syllabus required for Live Stock Assistants in both the States. As far as the subject of English/English grammar is concerned, it is pertinent to mention here that the standards of criteria for admission in Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner is higher than that of Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Hisar. For securing admission in the course of diploma in Animal Husbandry in Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, a candidate is required to have the background of either Medical or Agriculture in Senior Secondary Examination. However, for admission in Veterinary and Live Stock Development Diploma in Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Science, Hisar, a candidate may have any stream in Senior Secondary Examination.

14. That this action of respondents No. 2 and 3 entering the name of particular diploma of Veterinary and Live Stock Development Diploma in the Impugned Rules, thereby restricting the equivalence qualification from other recognized universities, violates Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution of India when the rules itself recognizes other universities. Once the essential qualifications relatable to the post are prescribed, the superimposition of a condition that the candidate should have possessed the diploma of a particular named diploma is impermissible in law. It amounts to an irrational geographical criteria, bearing no nexus with the object of the recruitment. The condition acts hostilely against all candidates who hold recognized qualifications of a diploma, but were "outsiders" in the sense that they completed their diploma from a recognized university merely on the ground that the name of diploma is not same. All the petitioners fulfill the requirements spelt out by the Veterinary Council of India; therefore, the insistence that a candidate should have a particular named diploma is totally arbitrary. There appears to be no reasonable classification based on any rationale or intelligible differentia, whereby students who passed a particular course from any recognized university are to be considered for appointment to the post of Veterinary and Live Stock Assistant and other students who passed equivalent diploma of the same duration from other institutes, although duly recognized, are to be excluded. The appointment with the department of Animal Husbandry, Haryana is appointment to a Public Office and thus, the Department has to treat equally in the matter of public appointment of all such persons who are having equivalent qualification. Whether a candidates passes a particular Diploma from one institute or the other institute, when both are recognized is on equal footing and pertains to same class. Article 14 of the Constitution forbids class legislation. The categorization of the candidates is two classes, one who are passing the VLDD from one institute and other passing the similar diploma i.e. Diploma in Animal Husbandry from other institutes is clearly arbitrary and discriminatory and does not pass the test of permissible classification. It is now well settled that to pass the test of permissible classification two conditions must be fulfilled, namely;

- (i) that the classification must be founded on an intelligible differentia which distinguishes persons or things that are grouped together from other left out of the Group; and
- (ii) That the classification must have a rational relation to the object sought to be achieved by the status in question.

15. That Candidates of both the categories form one class for the purposes of seeking appointment and they have right to be considered for the same. In fact, considering the candidates who passed a Veterinary and Livestock Development Diploma from Chaudhary Charan Singh Agricultural University and excluding those who passed similar qualification from other recognized institutions amounts to irrational classification and also amounts to depriving such candidates, who has not passes a particular named diploma i.e. VLDD which is only provided by a particular institute, right to be considered for public appointment and is, therefore, violative of Article 16 of the Constitution as well.

16. That it implies that a preference is given in public appointments to the students of Haryana state as the diploma mentioned in the impugned rules is not provided / awarded by any other recognized universities mentioned in Appendix E of impugned rules itself. The Hon'ble Supreme Court has recognized institution preference only in admission to educational institutes, as a constitutionally permissible mechanism. However, "Institutional preference" cannot be used in public employment. If the department of Animal Husbandry, Haryana is of the view that all the Universities in India recognized by their own rules offering similar diploma are a separate and distinct class, and therefore constitute a separate category, it should have supported that conclusion on the basis of some objective material. Hence, the mere mentioning a particular diploma excluding other similar and equivalent diploma granted by the Universities mentioned in Schedule-E of these rules does not set them apart from the similar and equivalent diploma courses from recognized universities in the rest of the country.

17. That the requirement of a selected candidates to have completed Veterinary and Livestock Development Diploma as it is granted by Chaudhary Charan Singh Agricultural University, (now known as Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Science, Hisar) is also not rational. The petitioners are possessing the qualification of Diploma in Animal Husbandry from Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner is in line with the qualifications as prescribed by the Veterinary Council of India, the requirement of VLDD qualifications, in the impugned advertisement, even states that the candidates qualification should be from Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Science, Hisar only as except this University no other university as recognized by the respondent's department provides exactly the diploma of the same name and in that case is difficult to understand as to why the respondents no. 3 has included the 29 Universities in Appendix E to the impugned Rules. The Particular Names of similar Diploma run by some of the recognized universities are as under:

Name of Institute	Name of Diploma
Assam Veterinary College affiliated to Assam Agricultural Universities (Sr. No. 3)	Graduate in Veterinary Science and Graduate in Veterinary
Bengal Veterinary College affiliated to West Bengal University of Animal and Fishery Sciences (Sr. No. 29)	Graduate of Bengal Veterinary College and Graduate in Veterinary Science.
Bihar Veterinary College affiliated to Birsa Agricultural University, Bihar (Sr. No.5)	Graduate of Bihar Veterinary College
Bombay Veterinary College affiliated to Bombay University	Graduate of Bombay Veterinary College
Madras Veterinary College affiliated to Tamilnadu Veterinary and Animal Science University (Sr. No.26)	Graduate of Madras Veterinary College
Punjab Veterinary College affiliated to Punjab Agricultural University, Ludhiana (Sr. No. 20)	Licensed Veterinary Practitioner (Conferred before 15.8.1947)

18. That Respondent No. 3 issued an advertisement dated 16.06.2015 inviting applications for 785 posts of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant (VLDA) in Animal Husbandry and Dairying Development, Haryana purely on contractual basis for a period of one year or till the regular recruitment is made, whichever is earlier, as per the outsourcing policy of the State Government dated 16.06.2015. The requisite qualifications for the posts of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant were prescribed in the advertisement as under:-

1. Matric or its equivalent from any recognized Board, University or Institution;
2. Two year Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant diploma course from Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Hisar or any other institution recognized / approved by the Haryana Government;
3. Knowledge of Hindi / Sanskrit upto Matric standard or higher education.

Photocopy of Advertisement dated 16.06.2015 is annexed as Annexure P-15.

19. That all the petitioners, being fully eligible and qualified as per the advertisement dated 16.06.2015, applied for the posts of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant well in time by annexing all the requisite documents.

20. That thereafter, Respondent No.3 displayed a List of eligible candidates for the posts of VLDA on contractual basis on 22.7.2015 against the above said Employment Notice dated 16.6.2015 on their official website www.pashudhanharyana.gov.in mentioning therein the roll number-wise list of eligible candidates and asked them to appear for the verification of documents/interview as per schedule given therein at Pet Animal Medical Centre, Near Gymkhana Club, Sector-3, Panchkula, whereby the general public has been informed that respondent No. 2 will conduct the interviews as per schedule given in the notice. However, the names of the petitioners did not find mention in the list of eligible candidates.

21. That since the petitioners did not find mention of their names in the list of eligible candidates, they all visited the office of Respondent No. 3 and submitted written representation to consider them as eligible candidates and issue them duplicate interview call letters. However, the office of Respondent No. 3 declined to issue them duplicate interview call letters on the premise that their diploma is not issued by the recognized University. The office of respondent No. 3 has refused to accept the representations but at the same time, they have informed the petitioners that the same is of no use as they will not be considered as their diploma has not been issued by the recognized university.

22. That when no heed was paid to the request made by the petitioners, then some of the petitioners were left with no alternative but to file civil writ petition No.15352 of 2015 titled as Vikas Kumar & ors. vs. State of Haryana & ors. and CWP No. 15500 of 2015 titled Lajja Ram & Ors. Vs. State of Haryana & ors. which came up for hearing before Hon'ble Mr. Justice Ajay Tewari on 28.07.2015 and his lordship was pleased to issue notice of motion for 04.02.2016 and further directed to provisionally interview the petitioners for the post of VLDA. Copy of the order dated 28.07.2015 passed in CWP No.1500/2015 and copy of letter dated 12.08.2015 of Director General, Animal Husbandry Deptt., Haryan directing the petitioners to provisionally appear for interview for the posts of VLDA are annexed as Annexure P-16(Colly).

23. That in compliance with the directions of Hon'ble Court, in CWP No. 15352 of 2015 the respondents called the petitioners and provisionally interviewed the petitioners of CWP No.24664/2015 on 31.07.2015 at 9.00 AM at Pet Animal Medical Centre, Near Gymkhana Club, Sector-3, Panchkula and the petitioners of CWP No.15500/2015 on 13.08.2015 at 11.00 AM in the office of Director General, Animal Husbandry, Haryana, Pashudhan Bhawan, Bays No.9-12, Sector-2, Panchkula (Respondent No. 3), for recruitment on contract basis against the posts advertised vide advertisement dated 16.06.2015. They appeared accordingly, but were not included in the select list and finally, the writ was dismissed relying on letter dated 24.09.2014 (P-15) in view of CWP No.15171 of 2015. It is relevant to mention that 561 candidates were selected against 785 posts advertised on 16.06.2015 and 224 posts remained vacant.

24. That it is relevant to mention that the Haryana Staff Selection Commission issued advertisement dated 10.07.2015 inviting applications from the eligible candidates for 797 posts of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant including 198 posts of General category, 106 post of BCA, 58 posts of BCB and 79 posts of EBPG category, to be filled up on regular basis in the Animal Husbandry & Dairying Department, Haryana. As per the advertisement, the last date for filing on-line applications was 23.11.2015. The advertisement contained the same qualification for the post of VLDA as contained in the 2011 Rules. Copy of the Advertisement dated 10.07.2015 is annexed as Annexure P-17.

25. That in view of the Advt. dated 10.07.2015 inviting applications on regular basis against those very posts, the counsel for the petitioners in CWP No.15352/2015 titled as Vikas Kumar & ors. vs. State of Haryana & ors., stated that this petition does not survive, accordingly, the said petition was dismissed as infructuous.

26. That it is also worthwhile to mention that some of the petitioners had earlier filed CWP No.23340 of 2015 challenging vires of 2011 Rules which came up for hearing before Hon'ble Division Bench comprising Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rajive Bhalla and Hon'ble Mrs. Justice Rekha Mittal on 02.11.2015 and their lordships were pleased to issue Notice of Motion for 03.12.2015. Respondent No.3 had issued advertisement No.7/2015 published on 10.07.2015 inviting applications for regular recruitment against 797 posts of VLDA and the last date for submission of application forms was 23.11.2015 and as per the on-line application form, the petitioners who have passed 2 Years Diploma/ Certificate from Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, Rajasthan, earlier known as Rajasthan Agricultural University and presently, known as Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner, Rajasthan, will not be eligible to compete for the post of VLDA advertised vide Advt. dated 10.07.2015 irrespective of the fact that name of Rajasthan Agricultural University is duly approved by Haryana Government at Sr.No.21 of Appendix

E of Amended Rules of 2011 only on the ground that in the main rules, only 2 Years Diploma of VLDA from Ch. Charan Singh University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences, Hisar (Haryana) is mentioned and the word "or equivalent" is not mentioned. It is also relevant to mention that the petitioners who had acquired 2 Years Diploma are neither eligible to be considered for recruitment in Rajasthan as they are domicile of Haryana nor they are being considered eligible for regular recruitment in Haryana on the ground that the word "equivalent" is not mentioned in the main Rules, though the University from where they have passed is duly approved by the Haryana Government at Sr.No.21 of Appendix E of the impugned Rules. After issuance of notice of motion, the petitioners came to know about the advertisement dated 10.07.2015. In pursuance of the advertisement dated 10.07.2015, all the petitioners made an attempt to apply on-line for the post of VLDA, but in the absence of option of AHD, i.e. the name of diploma possessed by the petitioners, they failed to apply. Accordingly, they immediately moved Civil Misc. Application No.14834 of 2015 with a prayer for permission to withdraw the aforesaid writ petition with liberty to file afresh one on the same cause of action by incorporating the challenge to the advertisement dated 10.07.2015 (P-17). The aforesaid CM Application came up for hearing before a Division Bench on 18.11.2015 and their lordships were pleased to allow the application.

27. That being aggrieved by the action of the respondents in prescribing the qualification of Two Years Diploma in Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant in the amended rules called Haryana Veterinary Headquarters & Field (Group C) Service Rules, 2011, denying the petitioners the right of consideration for the post of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant and issuing Advt. Dated 10.07.2015 inviting applications on regular basis & prescribing qualifications on the basis of 2011 Rules declaring the petitioners and other candidates who have passed two years Diploma from Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, (earlier known as Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner) and presently known as the Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner though Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner is duly approved by the Haryana Government at Sr.No.21 in Appendix E to the amended Rules, only on the ground that the nomenclature of the Diploma in the State of Rajasthan is not Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant, the petitioners No. 1 to 6 were forced to challenge the 2011 Rules and Advertisement dated 10.07.2015 by filing CWP No.24664/2015-Anoop Singh & ors. vs. UOI & ors. and petitioners No.7 to 10 by filing CWP No.1495 of 2015- Lajja Ram & ors. vs. State of Haryana & ors. in this Hon'ble High Court.

28. That on the issuance of notice of motion, the State of Haryana filed short reply by way of affidavit dated 10.12.2015 whereby the respondents stated that education imparted by the Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, presently called the Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner to the student of 2 Years Animal Husbandry

Diploma does not match with that of the course of VLDA of Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Science, Hisar. The written statement dated 07.01.2016 was also filed on behalf of respondents No.2 & 3 reproducing therein the curriculum of Two Year Diploma in Veterinary and Livestock Development from LUVAS, Hisar and Diploma Course in Animal Husbandry from RAJUVAS, Bikaner and trying to show that the subjects taught in the Diploma course undertaken by the petitioners are not the same as the subjects taught in the VLDA Diploma course also referred to some of the subjects that the same are missing from the Diploma course undertaken by the petitioners. The respondents also referred to the notifications dated 28.02.2011 and 04.07.2011 whereby the State included certain minor veterinary services and tried to show the variation in the subjects being taught by both the Institutions in first year and second year of the course undertaken by the petitioners as well as 2 years diploma awarded by Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Hisar.

29. That petitioners (Petitioners No.1,2, 6, 8, 9 & 10 of General Category, petitioners No.3 & 5 of BCA category, petitioner No.4 of BCB category and petitioner No.7 of EBPG category), filed CM No.1334-1335 on 28.01.2016 and brought on record the Examination notice dated 15.01.2016 and also prayed for restraining Respondent No.4 from filling up the posts of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant advertised vide Advertisement dated 10.07.2015 (P-17) or to allow them to sit in the written examination which was held on 21.02.2016 by accepting their application forms against their respective categories and also to interview them provisionally during the pendency of the writ petition. When the CM Applications came up for hearing before Hon'ble Court on 10.02.2016, the Hon'ble Court was pleased to allow the petitioners to sit in the examination without any special equities in their favour subject to outcome of writ petition.

30. That the petitioners had also filed Replication dated 08.02.2016 to the written statement filed on behalf of Respondents No.2 & 3, and also placed on record certain letters as Annexures P-30 to P-38 alongwith the Replication to the Written Statement. In reply to preliminary submissions, the petitioners, so far as the reference to the decision in CWP No.15171, 15238 & 18708 of 2015 titled as Pritam Kumar vs. Animal Husbandry & Dairying Department, Haryana is concerned, stated that in the said writ petitions, the vires of the relevant rules were not challenged and as such, it is not applicable in view of the relief sought in the writ petition filed by the petitioners. It was also mentioned that all the topics studied during 2 years diploma course in Veterinary & Livestock Development from Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Hisar are covered during study in 2 years of Diploma course in Animal Husbandry from Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Science, Bikaner and make the candidate who has done 2 years diploma course in Animal Husbandry from RAJUVAS, Bikaner eligible to perform 'minor veterinary services'. The letter dated 29.07.2003 issued by the Government of Rajasthan shows that the Rajasthan Govt. had been granting permission to private institutes to establish Livestock Assistant Training Colleges at different places subject to fulfillment of certain parameters/rules/conditions of State Govt. and for undergoing practical training, the Institution would make use of the nearest veterinary institute and agricultural farms of the Department for five years. The petitioners also brought to notice that the Rajasthan Govt. also granted permission to start Livestock Assistant course vide letter dated 27.12.2004. The petitioners further brought to notice the letters dated 28.01.2010, 30.11.2010, 09.07.2012, 23.07.2013, 17.11.2014 and 07.10.2015 granting affiliation for the years 2009-10, 2010-11, 2012-13, 2013-14, 2014-15 & 2015-16 by the Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner to private institutes for running Diploma of 2 years duration in Animal Husbandry. Copies of these letters are annexed as Annexure P-18 to P-23.

31. That the petitioners also filed CM No.104/2017 on 23.01.2017 bringing on record the list of successful candidates displayed on the official website. The roll nos. of petitioners except petitioner No.16 in Anoop Singh writ who could not appear in the test, were shown in the list of successful candidates. They appeared for verification of documents on 20.01.2017 and they were given proforma to be signed by the candidates indicating their qualifications. But in col. No.5 of the proforma, they were written as ineligible for not having possessed the Diploma with the nomenclature "Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant course". The petitioners prayed for either to restrain Respondent No.4 from holding interviews for filling up the posts of VLDA or to direct

Respondent No.4 to call the petitioners for interview for the post of VLDA. When the writ petitions came up for hearing before Hon'ble Court on 25.01.2017, the Hon'ble Bench was pleased to pass order as under:-

"Notice to Advocate General, Haryana, for 02.02.2017.

Meanwhile, if the petitioners have qualified in the screening test, they be interviewed provisionally but their result be kept in sealed cover."

31A. That the petitioners, who appeared in the written examination as well as in the interview in view of interim order, were surprised not to find their Roll Nos. in the result finally declared on 24.03.2017. Copy of the result dated 24.03.2017 is annexed as Annexure P-24.

32. That when the writ petitions came up for hearing before Hon'ble Division Bench on 02.02.2017, the Hon'ble Bench was pleased to adjourn the matter for 17.05.2017 and also ordered the writ petitions to be heard alongwith CWP No.25485 of 2015. The writ petitions alongwith a bunch of writ petitions came up for final hearing on 17.05.2017. Hon'ble Bench was pleased to dispose of the writs filed by the candidates like the petitioners. The relevant extract of the order passed by the Hon'ble Court is reproduced below:-

(17) There are some writ petitions including CWP No.24664, 25266 of 2015; 5346 of 2016 claiming that the institutions from where the petitioners have obtained their Diplomas are duly recognized under Appendix-E of the 1999 Rules. The writ petitioners, however, have not been treated eligible for the post of VLDA due to difference in nomenclature of the course. Liberty is granted to such writ petitioners to represent to the Director General, Animal Husbandry, Haryana who, in turn, is directed to constitute a team of three experts to examine the curriculum/syllabus of these Diplomas vis-à-vis Diplomas in VLDA Course and if it is found that their Diploma Courses are broadly the same, let these petitioners be treated eligible irrespective of the nomenclature of the Diplomas. Such an exercise shall be undertaken within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.

(18) Dasti.

Copy of the order dated 17.05.2017 is annexed as

Annexure P-25(Colly).

33. That in compliance with the order dated 17.05.2017 passed by the Hon'ble High Court, the petitioners submitted a joint representation to the Director, Animal Husbandry, Haryana on 31.05.2017 and the same was sent by the counsel for the petitioners vide implementation notice dated 31.05.2017 to the Director, Animal Husbandry to comply with the order of the Hon'ble Court. Copies of the implementation notice and representation dated 31.05.2017 are annexed as Annexure P-26 and P-27.

34. That in pursuance of the directions issued by the Hon'ble Court and the implementation notice sent by the petitioners, the Respondents constituted an Expert Committee comprising the following Experts to examine the curriculum/syllabus of the diplomas obtained form the institutions included in Appendix E of Haryana Veterinary Headquarter & Field Group-C Service Rules, 1999 vis-a-vis Veterinary Livestock Development Diploma imparted by Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences(LUVAS), Hisar:-

i) Dr. Kalyan Singh, Joint Director (Admn.)

- Animal Husbandry & Dairying, Panchkula.
- ii) Dr. R.K. Malik, Professor, Department of VPB Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences, Hisar.
  - iii) Dr.D.S. Bidhan, Assistant Professor Department of LPM
Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences, Hisar.
35. That the said committee, completely ignoring the mandate given by the Hon'ble Court that if curriculum/syllabus of both the diplomas are broadly same, then petitioners be treated as eligible irrespective of the nomenclature of the Diplomas, submitted its report dated 04.09.2017 without examining the contents of all Topics and on the basis of the report of Expert Committee, the office of Director General, Animal Husbandry & Dairying, Haryana, Panchkula sent reply to the implementation notice to the counsel for the petitioner vide letter No.12920 SE-II/E-2 dated 24.10.2017, as per which, significant differences have been reported by the committee of experts, which infers that curriculum & syllabus of the Two years Animal Husbandry Diploma imparted by Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences (RAJUVAS), Bikaner is significantly different from that of 2-Years Veterinary Livestock Development Diploma awarded by Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences (LUVAS), Hisar and as such, the petitioners do not fulfill the requisite qualification for the post of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant (VLDA) in Haryana and as such, on the basis of report of the Expert Committee, the petitioners are not eligible for the said post. Copy of the letter dated 24.10.2017 alongwith Expert Committee report is annexed as Annexure P-28(Colby).

36. That the report of Expert Committee which has been made the basis of impugned order dated 24.10.2017 is without application of mind, without comparing the contents of Topics studied by the candidates like the petitioners and has been prepared completely ignoring the mandate of this Hon'ble Court. The comparison of course contents, observations of committee and the comments of the petitioners are given in an annotated form as under:-

(1) Comparison of the academic course contents of IPVS LUVAS vis-à-vis RAJUVAS

Sr. No.	IPVS LUVAS	RAJUVAS
1.	Central nervous system in Introductory Anatomy of Domestic Animals	Not included which as per Expert Committee report is of utmost importance to provide Minor Veterinary Services under the supervision and direction of registered veterinary practitioner as envisaged in Section 30(b) of Indian Veterinary Council Act, 1984. REMARKS: Students like petitioners who have done 2 Years' diploma course from RAJUVAS have studied nervous control of blood flow, shock (blood volume and pressure) in the subject of Introductory Veterinary Physiology and Bio-Chemistry-II in Semester-II as well as they have studied drugs action on brain nervous system in the subject of Introductory Veterinary Pharmacology-II and they are also made to study regarding diseases of nervous system in the subject of Introductory Veterinary Medicine. It is submitted that the Introductory Anatomy subject was not introduced in syllabus in IPVS LUVAS, Hisar upto 2012 and was introduced in 2013 only, whereas from 2006 to 2015 i.e. candidates from 2006 to 2012 were appointed on regular basis without having studied the Subject of

		Central Nervous System.
2.	Physiological functioning of nervous system in introductory physiology of domestic animals.	Not included which as per Expert Committee report is of utmost importance to provide minor veterinary services under the supervision and direction of Registered Veterinary Practitioner as envisaged under Section 30(b) of Indian Veterinary Council Act, 1984. REMARKS: Students like petitioners who have done 2 Years' diploma course from RAJUVAS have studied nervous control of blood flow, shock (blood volume and pressure) in the subject of Introductory Veterinary Physiology and Bio-Chemistry-II in Semester-II as well as they have studied drugs action on brain nervous system in the subject of Introductory Veterinary Pharmacology-II and they are also made to study regarding diseases of nervous system in the subject of Introductory Veterinary Medicine. It is submitted that in IPVS LUVAS, Hisar, Introductory Physiology as well as Anatomy subjects were introduced in the year 2013 whereas many candidates selected have done diploma from IPVS LUVAS, Hisar in the years 2006 to 2012 and as such, have not studied these subjects.
Photocopies of the syllabus of RAJUVAS and IPVS LUVAS, Hisar got under RTI Act is annexed as Annexures P-29 &amp; P-30 respectively.
3.	Subject of English with credit hours of 2+1	Not included which as per Expert Committee report is of utmost importance, as almost all the prescriptions by the qualified registered Veterinary Practitioners are prescribed in English. Moreover, all the allopathic medicines/ drugs and their literature are labeled/ written in English language. Therefore, non- inclusion of English in their syllabus is a big hindrance for diploma holders in providing minor veterinary services under the supervision and direction of registered veterinary practitioners. REMARKS: Eligibility for admission in RAJUVAS is 10+2 with the subjects- Physics, Chemistry, Biology or Agriculture, whereas the eligibility for admission in Diploma from IPVS LUVAS is 10th pass. The petitioners have

		studied English upto 10+2 standard whereas the LUVAS students have studied English upto 10th standard. So the candidates like the petitioners have already studied this syllabus of English in 10+1 &amp; 10+2 before taking admission in 2 years Diploma conducted by RAJUVAS. Note: Prescription Reading &amp; Prescription Writing, Labelling and Storage of Common Drugs comes under Pharmacy subject in IPVS LUVAS and in subjects of Introductory Veterinary Pharmacology-I and not under English as per syllabus. The copy of syllabus of RAJUVAS and of IPVS LUVAS are already annexed as part of Annexures P-28 &amp; P-29 respectively.
Copies of marks sheets of the candidates having passed diploma in the years 2012 &amp; 2013 got under RTI Act are annexed as Annexure P-31(Colly).
4.	Introduction to animal product technology with credit hours of 1+0 has been included in their course contents of IPVSLUVAS.	Animal product technology is totally missing and as per Expert Committee Report, in absence of this course content, diploma holders from RAJUVAS lack in important handling, storage and distribution of meat, poultry and eggs, candling and grading of eggs, milk definition and its composition, factor affecting composition and quality of milk, elementary knowledge about nutritive value, source of bacterial contamination of milk and clean milk production, C, O, B and alcohol test, PH by indicative paper, specific gravity test, estimation of fat, SNF and TS in milk, processing packaging and distribution of milk. REMARKS: In RAJUVAS, Animal Products are under Animal Management and this subject has no value in Animal Husbandry and Dairy Department, Haryana. A RTI was sent by one Naresh Chand Dixit regarding Animal Product Technology and appeal was filed before Sh. Vineet Mahajan, Deputy Secretary to Govt. Haryana, Animal Husbandry &amp; Dairy Development Deptt. and where following officials of Department were present: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i) Daljeet Singh Jaggi, Supdt. Animal Husbandry Branch cum SPIO.</li> <li>ii) Dr. Sushma Yadav, Vety. Surgeon -cum-ASPIO, O/o Director General, Animal Husbandry alongwith dealing Assistant Sh. Om Pal.</li> </ul>

		iii) Sh.Dinesh Mahajan, Manager, Audit cum SPIO, Haryana Dairy Development Cooperative Federation alongwith Sh.RM Singh, Assistant Manager, RTI, and at Sr.No.3, it was decided that SPIO, O/o Director General, Animal Husbandry informed that the information does not pertain to her office. She further informed that duty chart of VLDA is also available on website. Appellant was advised to download from said website. Later on, a letter reg. duty chart was sent vide letter No.923 dt.2.8.17 reg. Animal Product Technology belong to Haryana Dairy Federation under Co-operation Department and Haryana Dairy Federation does not come under Animal Husbandry and Dairy Department. The Assistant Director, Govt. Hatchery Farm, Hisar informed that handling of Poultry Distribution or Meat, Distribution of Eggs, Controlling of Eggs, Grading of Egg, is performed by Chick Sexor under supervision of Veterinary Surgeon.

Annexure P-33.

6.	Topics of bio-medical waste management have been included in the subject of pharmacy in the course contents of diploma from IPVS LUVAS.	Not included. Whereas as per Expert Committee Report, the lack of knowledge of Bio-medical waste management is not only hazardous for environmental point of view but may lead to zoonotic diseases and outbreaks. REMARKS: Even the syllabi of subject Pharmacy of IPVS LUVAS do not include this topic in the course contents of subject of Pharmacy.
7.	Important practical subjects of introduction of clinical procedure and farm animal practices is of 0.6 credit hours.	Whereas in the syllabus of RAJUVAS, the equivalent subject known by the name of Hospital practice course is of non credit which as per Expert Committee Report, being a non credit, means students are not evaluated and awarded marks in their diploma certificates but only adjudged as satisfactory or unsatisfactory. REMARKS: Whether it is credit based or non credit based, is not a relevant factor while considering the equivalence of syllabi and course contents diploma course of Veterinary Sciences done from IPVS LUVAS and RAJUVAS.

37. That one Ramo Devi W/o Sh.Ram Dayal R/o Aali Brahaman Dixit Medical Store, Bus Stand, Hodal, Distt. Palwal sought information under the RTI Act, 2005, in pursuance of which, the Department of Animal Husbandry & Dairying, Haryana, Panchkula supplied the information to her vide letter No.RTI-22/17-4413 dated 29.03.2017 which contains letter NO.10997 E.2/2 dated 12.06.09 of Director General, Animal Husbandry & Dairying Department, Haryana addressed to the Commissioner & Secretary, Department of Animal Husbandry, Chandigarh. As per this letter, 2 Years Diploma passed from 25 Institutes including Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner from where the petitioners have passed 2 Years Animal Husbandry Diploma course, is a valid Diploma course. Copy of the letter dated 12.06.2009 alongwith the list of such Institutes is annexed as Annexure P-34.

38. That it is also relevant to mention that along with letter dated 29.03.2017, a copy of letter No.854 SE-II dated 4.2.2010 has also been sent which contains a list of Diploma Certificate as has been approved through Technical Committee of the Department. As per the list enclosed with this letter, one candidate at Sr.No.13 of the list, namely Sanjeet Kumar S/o Shri Brij Lal has passed 2 Years Animal Husbandry Diploma Examination in 2008 from Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner (B.B.M.S. Animal Husbandry College, Jaipur), which has been shown as Valid and Acceptable. Copy of the letter dated 04.02.2010 alongwith the list is annexed as Annexure P-35.

39. That it is evident from the perusal of said list of institutions enclosed with letter dated 27.03.2017 that the candidates in the said list at Sr.No.13- Sarjeet Kumar S/o Brij Lal and Sr.No.14- Jitender Singh Rajawat S/o Shakti Singh Rajawat, had obtained 2 Years Animal Husbandry Diploma in 2008 from Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner (BBMS Animal Husbandry College, Jaipur) Private Institute affiliated to RAU, Bikaner and the same has been accepted to be valid. It is astonishing that the State Govt. is adopting different yardsticks to choose arbitrarily as to which of the Diploma of Veterinary & Livestock Development is to be held valid and acceptable or not, which is highly discriminatory in case of the present petitioners as they have obtained the said diploma from Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner from where the candidates at Sr.No.13 & 14 of the above said list had obtained.

40. That one of the petitioners sought information under the RTI Act regarding the final result dated 24.03.2017 of the post of VLDA against advertisement No.7/2015 Category No.14 from the Haryana Staff Selection Commission. The commission while supplying the copy of final result vide letter dated 29.12.2017, informed that all 198 posts of general category have been filled up but posts in following categories are lying vacant:

Sr. No.	Name of category	No. of posts lying vacant
1.	SC	73
2.	BCA	42
3.	BCB	13
4.	EBPG	71
5.	ESM SC	20
6.	ESM BCA	13
7.	ESM BCB	23

8.	OSP-SC	8
9.	OSP-BCA	3
10.	OSP-BCB	3
11.	PGCOH	21
12.	PHC HH	23
240	PHC-VH	23

Copy of the letter dated 29.12.2017 is annexed as
Annexure P-36.

41A. That it is relevant to mention that out of total 561 candidates declared selected against 785 posts advertised on contract basis vide Advt. dated 16.06.2015, 443 candidates have been selected on regular basis in pursuance of advertisement dated 10.07.2015 and the remaining 118 candidates working as VLDA on contract have been granted extension from 19.10.2017 to 18.10.2018 or till the regular candidate is appointed, whichever is earlier, in pursuance of the concurrence given by General Administration Department to the proposal of Animal Husbandry & Dairying Department vide UO No.16/99/2017-3GS-II dated 23.11.2017. Copy of the letter dated 23.11.2017 is annexed as Annexure P-37.

42. That the petitioners have also come to know that some of the candidates possessing the qualification of B.V.Sc. have also been selected and appointed against the post of VLDA whereas the qualification of B.V.Sc. was not desirable in the advertisement issued by the HSSC and they do not deserve to be appointed against the post of VLDA. Such candidates are required to be removed from the post of VLDA to make room for the Diploma holders like the petitioners as a number of posts of SC/BC category are lying vacant and SC/BC candidates be appointed against those regular posts.

43. That the action of officials Respondents in rejecting the claim of the Petitioners for consideration against the posts of VLDA advertised vide Advertisement dated 07.10.2015 without comparing contents of Syllabus and on factually incorrect/ in applicable Grounds and that too ignoring the order passed by Hon'ble Court dated 17.05.2017 is illegal, arbitrary, in colourable exercise of the authority, in violation of the Statutory Rules, in violation of Articles 14 & 16 and in violation of the law laid down and as such deserves to be quashed and direction deserves to be issued to grant relief claimed for.

44. That the following law points emerge out of the present writ petition:-

- I) WHETHER the petitioners are entitled for the relief claimed for?
- II) WHETHER the action of the Respondents is legal and valid?
- III) WHETHER the action of the respondents is illegal, arbitrary & discriminatory?
- IV) WHETHER the action of the respondents is in violation of Articles 14 & 16 of the Constitution of India?
- V) WHETHER the action of the respondents is in violation of the law laid down by the Hon'ble High Court and Hon'ble Supreme Court of India?

45. That the petitioner is not left with any other alternative remedy of appeal/revision except to approach this Hon'ble High Court by way of filing the present writ petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India.

46. That the petitioner has not filed any other writ petition either in this Hon'ble High Court or in other High Court or of in the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, except the writs mentioned in the foregoing paras.
47. That the petitioners are filing a joint writ petition claiming the same relief against the same respondents. Hence joint writ petition is maintainable in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the matter of A.N. Pathak & Ors. Vs. Union of India as reported A.I.R. 1987 SC 716.

On the grounds submitted above and more to be stated later on, if necessary it is respectfully prayed:-

- i) to direct the respondents to produce the complete record of the case;
- ii) to issue an appropriate writ, order or direction, especially a writ in the nature of Certiorari, quashing the order dated 24.10.2017 (P-28-Colly) issued by the office of Director General, Department of Animal Husbandry & Dairying, Haryana i.e. Respondent No.3 in pursuance of the orders dated 17.05.2017 passed by the Hon'ble High Court in CWP No.25485/2015 Kuldeep Vs. State of Haryana & ors. and connected matters including CWP No.24664 of 2015-Anoop Singh & ors. vs. State of Haryana & ors. and CWP No.1495 of 2017 –Lajja Ram & ors. vs. State of Haryana & ors. whereby the respondents have declared the petitioners ineligible for selection and appointment against the post of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant (VLDA) on the basis of report submitted Expert Committee, which is factually incorrect or those topics are not applicable at present and in complete disregard of the order passed by the Hon'ble Court in CWP No.25485 of 2015(P-25/I), CWP No.1495 of 2017 (P-25/II), holding that the petitioners will be eligible irrespective of the nomenclature if both the diploma courses are broadly same.

- iii) It is further prayed that a writ of MANDAMUS may kindly be issued directing Respondents No. 2 to 4 to consider the candidature of petitioners for Selection and Appointment against the posts of VLDA advertised vide Advertisement dated 10.07.2015 (P-17) by treating them eligible in view of order dated 17.05.2017 passed in bunch of writ petitions (P-25-Colly) by treating the petitioners eligible as both the Diploma courses are broadly same, against the vacant posts w.e.f. the dates other candidates have been issued appointment letters with all consequential benefits.
- iv) It is further prayed that direction may kindly be issued to Respondents No.2 to 4 to consider the candidature of petitioners for selection & appointment on contract basis against the vacant posts advertised vide Advt. dated 16.06.2015 (Annexure P-15) by treating them eligible .
- v) It is further prayed that Respondents No.2 to 4 may kindly be restrained from filling up vacant posts out of posts advertised vide Advt. dated 10.07.2015 (Annexure P-17) during the pendency of the present writ petition.
- vi) It is further prayed that this Hon'ble Court may be pleased to issue any other writ, order or direction, as this Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper in the facts and circumstances of the case.
- vii) It is further prayed that the petitioners may kindly be exempted from filing true typed copies of Annexures P-1 to P-37 and true photocopies of the same may kindly be accepted.
- viii) To exempt the petitioners form filing certified copies of the Annexures.

41

- vii) To dispense with the service of advances notices on the respondents;

THE RAJASTHAN AGRICULTURAL UNIVERSITY, BIKANER

(CHANGE OF NAME) ORDINANCE, 2009

(ORDINANCE No. 2 of 2009)

(Made and promulgated by the Governor on the 4th day of June, 2009)

An

ORDINANCE

To change the name of the Rajasthan Agriculture University Bikaner and to make certain amendment in the Rajasthan Agriculture University, Bikaner Act, 1987.

Whereas, the Rajasthan State Legislative Assembly is not in secession and the Governor of the State Legislative Assembly is not in session and the Governor of the State of Rajasthan is satisfied that the circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action:

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of Article 213 of the Constitution of India, the Governor hereby promulgates in the Sixtieth year of the Republic of India, the following ordinance, namely :-

1. Short title and commencement.

- (1) This ordinance may be called the Rajasthan Agriculture University, Bikaner (Change of Name) ordinance, 2009
  - (2) It shall come into force at once.
2. Change of name of the Rajasthan Agriculture University, Bikaner

(1) The name of the Rajasthan Agriculture University, Bikaner, incorporated under the Rajasthan Agriculture University, Bikaner Act, 1987 (Act No. 39 of 1987) hereinafter referred to as the principal Act shall, as from the date of commencement of this ordinance, be "The Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agriculture University, Bikaner"

SWAMI KESHWANAND RAJASTHAN AGRICULTURE
UNIVERSITY, BIKANER ACT 1987

(2) Any reference to the Rajasthan Agriculture University, Bikaner in any law for the time being in force or in any indenture, instrument or other documents shall be read and construed as a reference to that University under its name as altered by this ordinance.

(3) Nothing in this ordinance shall affect the continuity of the corporate status of the said University.

3. Amendment:-

(1) As from the date of commencement of this Ordinance, the principal Act Shall stand amended to the extent and in the manner specified in the Schedule.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) Shall be without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of section 2.

4. Citation of the principal Act.- The principal Act may be cited as the Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agriculture University, Bikaner Act, 1987.

THE SCHEDULE

(See section 3)

Section 1. In sub-section (1), for the expression "The Rajasthan Agriculture University, Bikaner Act" the expression "the Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agriculture University, Bikaner Act" Shall be substituted.

Section 2. For clause (u), the following clause shall be substituted namely :-

"(u)" University" means the Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agriculture University, Bikaner."

Subject: Clarification regarding academic qualification for the post of VLDA.

Reference: Your letter No. 1/102/2014-6S/2049, dated 11.8.2014.

With reference to your letter on the subject cited above, you are informed as under:-

"That the petitioner who is claiming to be considered for the post of VLDA have not requisite diploma of Veterinary and Livestock Development rather they have diploma in Animal Husbandry from Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner. Both diplomas are not equivalent. The name of diploma course is different from the required Veterinary and Livestock Development Diploma.
Further the diploma course of Rajasthan is state specific to Rajasthan where the Indian Veterinary Council Act, 1984 mandate the paravet training as per the requirement by the State Director General, Animal Husbandry & Dairying, Haryana. There is no subject of English and/or English Grammar which is essential as the drug Label and Literature is more or less essentially in English. The subject of Animal Production Technology is altogether missing when this is quite essential for optimise animal productivity which is the backbone of animal husbandry. The syllabus is semester based whereas the diploma seems to be conducted on annual basis as evident from the Mark-Sheet. There is serious lack of details in the subject of clinical medicine which is paravet importance. Therefore, the diploma in Animal Husbandry cannot be considered for the post of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant as it is not equivalent to the diploma required for the said post.

PETITION under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India for the issuance of an appropriate writ, order or direction, especially a writ in the nature of Certiorari, quashing the Haryana Veterinary Headquarter & Field (Group C) Service (Amendment) Rules, 2011 (P-2) to the extent that only the candidates who have passed 2 Years Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant Diploma course from Chaudhary Charan Singh Haryana Agricultural University, Hisar or the candidates having 2 Years Diploma with the same nomenclature i.e. VLDA course from any other institution recognised and approved by the Haryana Govt. are eligible to compete for the post of VLDA ignoring the fact that all the Universities which are specified in Appendix-E to 2011 Rules provide this 2 Years diploma in Veterinary Science with the different nomenclature, and as such, not providing the words "or equivalent diploma" in these Rules, approved by the Haryana Govt. as specified in Appendix E to 2011 Rules and also quashing the advertisement dated 10.07.2015 (P-27) which provides the same qualification as prescribed under the amended Rules 2011, taking away the right of the petitioners for consideration for regular appointment against the post of VLDA, being illegal, arbitrary, discriminatory, in colourable exercise of authority and in violation of Articles 14 & 16 of the Constitution of India.

It is further prayed that a writ of Certiorari be issued quashing the communication dated 24.09.2014 (P-25) vide which the Department of Animal Husbandry, Haryana has wrongly and illegally declared that two years Diploma of Animal Husbandry done by the petitioners from Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University is not equivalent to that of Two Years Veterinary Livestock Development Diploma course from Chaudhary Charan Singh Haryana Agricultural University, Hisar as the provisions of Veterinary Council Act, 1984 are binding on Government of Haryana.

It is further prayed that a writ of Mandamus be issued directing the official respondents and the respondent Commission to consider the petitioners for recruitment against the post of VLDA advertised vide Advt. Dated 10.07.2015 (P-27) by treating them eligible and qualified for consideration in view of the fact that they have passed 2 Years diploma from a university duly approved by the Haryana Government as per Appendix-E to 2011 Amended Rules.

It is further prayed that a direction may kindly be issued to the respondent Commission to accept the application forms of the petitioners for the post of VLDA advertised vide Advt. Dated 10.07.2015 and interview them provisionally during the pendency of writ petition.

CWP_24664_2015_MEMO_OF_PARTIES 01-Jun-2017 at 11:30 108

It is further prayed that this Hon'ble Court may be pleased to issue any other writ, order or direction, as this Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper in the facts and circumstances of the case.

RESPECTIVELY SHOWETH:-

1. That the petitioners are citizens of India and residents of the State of Haryana and as such, are entitled to invoke the extraordinary writ jurisdiction of this Hon'ble High Court by way of filing the present writ petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India.
2. That the Parliament of India enacted the Act namely "The Indian Veterinary Council Act, 1984 Act" and the Act provides to regulate Veterinary practice and to provide, for that purpose, for the establishment of a Veterinary Council of India and the State Veterinary Council and the maintenance of registers of the Veterinary Practitioners and for matter connected therewith. Chapter-IV of the Act provides privileges of registered Veterinary Practitioners. Section-30 of the Act in Chapter-IV provides rights of persons who are enrolled on the Indian Veterinary Practitioners Registers which are as under:-
  30. Right of persons who are enrolled on the Indian veterinary practitioners register. - No. person, other than a registered veterinary practitioner, shall -
    - (a) hold office as veterinary physician or surgeon or any other like office (by whatever name called) in

SURYA KANT, J. (Oral)

(1) In this batch of 57 writ petitions bearing CWP Nos.25485, 24664, 25266, 15214, 20885 of 2015; 3585, 3180, 2844 of 2016; 1268, 2000, 1674, 1614, 2996, 2517, 2719, 2725, 2739, 5493, 5810, 1559, 2105, 1563, 3843, 2751, 1560, 1691, 2721, 5701, 2422, 2504, 1442, 1221, 1726, 1742, 1495, 3515, 2910, 1487, 4137, 1561, 3881, 2091, 1558, 1349, 2876, 5406, 5346, 1437, 5574, 5386, 2160, 5342, 3133, 3107, 1589, 1999 & 2248 of 2017, the petitioners have questioned the validity of Clause at Sr.No.27 of Appendix 'B' of the Haryana Veterinary Headquarter & Field (Group C) Service Rules, 1999 as amended vide notification dated 28.02.2011 whereby qualification for the post of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant (VLDA) has been prescribed. As per the amended Rule, a candidate having academic qualification of Matric or its equivalent from a recognized University/Board/Institution is further required to possession "two years Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant Diploma Course from Ch. Charan Singh, Haryana Agricultural University, Hisar or any other Institution recognized/approved by the Hindi/Sanskrit upto Matric standard or Higher Education. The petitioners in these writ petitions have done their Diploma Courses in Veterinary Livestock Development from such Agricultural or Veterinary Universities which do not find mention in Appendix-E of 1999 Rules and consequently, they, having been treated ineligible for the post of VLDA advertised by the Haryana Staff Selection Commission, seek to strike down the embargo on the validity of their Diplomas created under the 1999 Rules and seek a consequential direction that they be considered eligible for the advertised posts. For the sake of brevity and to avoid repetition; the facts are being extracted from CWP No.25485 of 2015.

(2) The petitioner in this case though passed his Matriculation from the Board of School Education, Haryana but he is said to have completed his Diploma in Livestock Assistant from Vinayaka Missions University, Salem, Tamil Nadu in the year 2008-09. The aforesaid University does not find mention in the list of 30 Universities included in Appendix-A of the 1999 Rules as amended on 28.02.2011. Resultantly, the petitioner has been rendered ineligible for recruitment to 797 posts of VLDA advertised on 10.07.2015.

(3) The case of the petitioner is that Vinayaka Missions University is a 'Deemed University' under Section 3 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956 and all programmes imparted by it through Distance Education are approved by the Distance Education Council, Government of India vide letter dated 17.02.2004. Regardless of such recognition, the offending amendment carried out on 28.02.2011, has rendered the petitioner ineligible to compete for the post of VLDA. The petitioner thus assails the said Rule on the grounds, inter alia:-

CWP No.25485 of 2015

- i. That the amendment in the Rules whereby Veterinary Diplomas of only 30 Universities, besides the State run University are recognized, amounts to a blanket ban on the validity of the diplomas of all other universities which is per se illegal and beyond the powers of the State Government;
- ii. Once the Diploma imparted by Vinayaka Missions University is recognized under the UGC Act, namely, by the Central Government, the action of the State Government in de-recognising such Diploma is directly in teeth of Article 254 of the Constitution and there being direct conflict between the 'Central legislation' and the 'State Rules', the former will prevail.
- iii. The petitioner had completed his diploma course before 2011 and was fully eligible under the 1999 Rules hence the impugned amendment amounts to rendering him ineligible retrospectively.
- iv. The inclusion of some of the universities in the list of recognized institutions is a handpicked exercise undertaken by the State authorities without any rationale and therefore the impugned action does not stand to the touchstone of Articles 14 & 16 of the Constitution.

(4) In the connected writ petitions also, learned counsel for the petitioners have broadly reiterated these contentions. They also rely upon the Executive Instructions of State Government dated 18.03.1975 and 02.11.1999 to contend that the Diplomas/Degrees recognized by the Central Government ipso facto stand recognized by the State Government and therefore, also amendment in the Rules is bad in law. Reliance has been placed upon the decisions of this Court in (i) Manoj Kumar and others vs.

State of Haryana & Ors. 2007(I) PLR 569; (ii) Dalip Singh vs. State of Haryana & Anr. 2011(2) PLR 228; and (iii) Satish Kumar vs. State of Haryana & Ors. 2013(I) SCT 272 to urge that once the Degree/Diploma imparted by a Deemed University is recognized by UGC, it is not within the competence of the State to refuse to recognize such qualification.

(5) Contrarily, learned Addl. AG Haryana submits that most of the petitioners have obtained their Diplomas through Distance Education from Deemed Universities located in the States of Tamil Nadu, Rajasthan, Himachal Pradesh and other States. He points out that all these Deemed Universities are operating through their Training Centres set up at different places in the State of Haryana where practical training is claimed to have been imparted. An Expert Committee was constituted to randomly inspect these institutions whereupon it submitted its report dated 20.09.2007 (RV) and found that these institutions were being operating in one or two rooms where neither any training centre nor basic facilities to impart the requisite training were found. The Committee summed up its conclusion as follows:-

“SUMMARY

The above mentioned 10 institutes or centres have been found imparting un-recognised and unauthorized VLDA diploma training courses in the State under the affiliation from the following four deemed universities without having basic infrastructure/facilities.

1. Institute of Advanced Studies in education, Gandhi Vidya Mandir, Sardar Shahar, Rajasthan.
2. Janardhan Rui Nagar Rajasthan Vidyapeeth, Udaipur.
3. Vinayaka Mission Research Foundation, Salem (Raj.) [sic].

CWP No.25485 of 2015

4. Allahabad Agriculture Institute Deemed University, Allahabad

The subject shown in the diploma certificates issued by the above deemed Universities are different and insufficient as compared with the CCS Haryana Agriculture University, Hisar on one hand, on other hand to impart this type of technical diploma without availability of basic facilities and infrastructure seems to be fake and bogus which can prove fatal to public interest. Hence it will be appropriate that these types of trainings should be declared illegal."

(6) The State Government thereafter on consideration of the Expert Committee report and after comparing the nomenclature, curriculum and syllabus of the Diploma courses imparted by Deemed Universities, took a conscious decision to recognize only those diplomas where the standard of training, curriculum, duration, etc. were at par with that of the State University, namely, CCS University, Hisar (now known as the Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary Sciences). On applying these yardsticks, 30 different Universities in the country were found imparting Diploma courses of equivalent standard hence those Universities were included in Appendix-E referred to at Sr.No.27 (Column-II) of 1999 Rules. He urges that the Deemed Universities which are imparting the Diplomas through Distance Education without any satisfying proof of actual training etc. cannot claim parity with a premier institute like CCS, Haryana Agricultural University or such other recognized Universities. He maintains that parity can be claimed by the institutions which are equally placed as there cannot be equality amongst unequals.

(7) Learned State counsel further submits that the Diplomas relied upon by the petitioners have not been recognized by the Veterinary Council of India. A pointed reference is made to Section 30 of the Indian Veterinary

Council Act 1984, the proviso whereof empowers the State Government to "permit a person holding Diploma or certificate of Veterinary Supervisor, Stockman or Stock Assistant (by whatever name called) issued by the Directorate of Animal Husbandry of any State or any Veterinary institution in India, to render, under the supervision and direction of registered Veterinary practitioner, minor Veterinary services". The Explanation appended to Section 30 defines "Minor Veterinary Services" means "the rendering of preliminary veterinary aid like, vaccination, castration, and dressing of wounds, and such other types of preliminary aid or the treatment of such ailments as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf". He points out that it is the prerogative of the State Government to recognize a Diploma or Certificate of Veterinary Science if it is not recognized by Veterinary Council of India and in exercise of such powers, the State Government has taken a uniform policy decision to recognize certain diplomas for the purpose of appointment on the posts of VLDA under the State Government.

(8) Learned counsel for the Veterinary Council of India refers to the written statement filed in CWP No.20885 of 2015 and some other cases where the Veterinary Council of India has taken a categoric stand that none of the Diplomas relied upon by the petitioners are recognized by it. He refers to proviso to Section 30 to submit that it is for the State Government to recognize or not to recognize such Diplomas for the purpose of 'Minor Veterinary Services'.

(9) We have heard learned counsel for the parties at a considerable length and gone through the record.

(10) There is hardly any quarrel that the Veterinary Council of India and the State Veterinary Council have been established under the provisions of the Indian Veterinary Council Act, 1984 which is a Central legislation. Section 2(e) of the Central Act defines 'recognised Veterinary qualification' to mean that 'any of the Veterinary qualifications included in the First Schedule or the Second Schedule'. Under Section 15 of the Act only those qualifications which are included in the First Schedule can be recognized as valid Veterinary qualifications. Section 30 of the Act is couched in negative language and it provides that no person other than a registered Veterinary practitioner shall hold office as Veterinary physician or surgeon or any other like office in Government or in any other institution maintained by a local or other authority or practise Veterinary medicine in any State subject to the permission accorded by the State Government to render minor Veterinary services under its proviso. Section 30 along with its proviso and Explanation attached thereto reads as follows:-

"30. Right of persons who are enrolled on the Indian veterinary practitioners register. No person, other than a registered veterinary practitioner, shall--

- (a) hold office as veterinary physician or surgeon or any other like office (by whatever name called) in Government or in any institution maintained by a local or other authority;
- (b) practise veterinary medicine in any State:

Provided that the State Government may, by order, permit a person holding a diploma or certificate of veterinary supervisor, stockman or stock assistant (by whatever name called) issued by the Directorate of Animal Husbandry (by whatever name called) of any State or any veterinary institution in India, to render, under the supervision and direction of a registered veterinary practitioner, minor veterinary services.

Explanation. -- "Minor veterinary services" means the rendering of preliminary veterinary aid, like, vaccination, castration, and dressing of wounds, and such other types of preliminary aid or the treatment of such ailments as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf;

- (c) be entitled to sign or authenticate a veterinary health certificate or any other certificate required by any law to be signed or authenticated by a duly qualified veterinary practitioner;
- (d) be entitled to give evidence at any inquest or in any court of law as an expert under section 45 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872. (1 of 1872.), on any matter relating to veterinary medicine."

[emphasis applied]

(11) From the plain reading of the Explanation appended to Section 30, it can be seen that the preliminary Veterinary aid like vaccination, castration, and dressing of wounds, etc. are included in the 'minor Veterinary services'. These are the primary duties of a VLDA in the Veterinary Department. The power to recognize a diploma or certificate of Veterinary Supervisor, Stockman or Stock Assistant irrespective of the nomenclature for providing 'Minor Veterinary Services' is exclusively vested in the State Government except where such power has been exercised by the Veterinary Council of India.

(12) In the light of the fact that the Diplomas or Certificates relied upon by the petitioners have not been recognized by the Veterinary Council of India, the only short issue left to be examined is that who else is the Authority competent to recognize such Diplomas for the purposes of 'Minor

Veterinary Services'? This question, in our considered view, stands squarely answered by proviso to Section 30 of the 1984 Act where the State Government has been empowered to grant such recognition. We are thus of the view that not only in exercise of its plenary powers to formulate Rules under Article 309 of Constitution but also in exercise of its statutory powers under Section 30 of the 1984 Act, it is the State Government alone who is competent to recognize a Diploma or Certificate of Veterinary Supervisor, Stockman and Stock Assistant, as the case may be. It is in conformity with and in exercise of such power that the State Government formulated the 1999 Rules as amended vide notification dated 28.02.2011.

(13) In view of the fact that under a separate Central legislation, the State Government has been expressly authorized to recognize or not to recognize Veterinary Diplomas or Certificates, the petitioners' contention that their Diplomas having been awarded by Deemed Universities are deemed to have been recognized by the State Government becomes wholly irrelevant and inconsequential. Once the power has been exercised under a special Statute or Legislation, it shall have overriding effect over the general provisions of any other law.

(14) It is not a case where State Government has created monopoly to accord undue favour to the Diploma holders of any particular university. Besides, the diploma course imparted by State-run university, there are 30 other Universities throughout the country which have been recognized for the purpose of public employment. The petitioners therefore cannot be heard to say that the State Government has acted arbitrarily or there is any blanket ban imposed on a class of eligible candidates to prevent them from being appointed as VLDAs.

(15) For the sake of clarification, it may be added that the petitioner's claim that their diplomas have been recognized by UGC and therefore the State Government cannot ignore such recognition is liable to be discarded for yet another reason. The power to recognize a qualification in Veterinary Science is exclusively vested in the Veterinary Council of India and not UGC. Veterinary Council of India is a statutory body at par with any other professional authority like Medical Council of India, Dental Council of India or even UGC. It is the Veterinary Council of India alone who can recognize the qualification in Veterinary Sciences in view of the express power conferred upon it under Section 15 of the Act. The Veterinary Council of India has admittedly not recognized the diplomas relied upon by the petitioners. The recognition of diploma courses in Veterinary Sciences need not be confused with recognition of the universities who are said to have imparted these diplomas. While the Universities may have recognition as Deemed Universities under Section 3 of the UGC Act, the diploma courses imparted by them cannot be validated unless such course is further recognized by Veterinary Council of India in exercise of its powers under Section 15 of the Act.

(16) In the light of the above discussion, we do not find any merit in these writ petitions which are accordingly dismissed.

(17) There are some writ petitions including CWP No.24664, 25266 of 2015; 5346 of 2016 claiming that the institutions from where the petitioners have obtained their Diplomas are duly recognized under Appendix-E of the 1999 Rules. The writ-petitioners, however, have not been treated eligible for the post of VLDAs due to difference in nomenclature of the Course. Liberty is granted to such writ-petitioners to represent to the Director General, Animal Husbandry, Haryana, who, in turn, is directed to constitute a team of three experts to examine the curriculum/syllabus of these Diplomas vis-à-vis Diplomas in VLDA Course and if it is found that their Diploma Courses are broadly the same, let these petitioners be treated eligible irrespective of the nomenclature of the Diplomas. Such an exercise shall be undertaken within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.

(hereinafter to be called the petitioners), filed CWP No.22279 of 2012 titled as Kushal Sharma vs. State of Haryana & ors. praying for a writ of Certiorari, quashing the Haryana Veterinary Headquarter & Field (Group C) Service (Amendment) Rules, 2011 (P-2) to the extent that only the candidates who have passed 2 Years Veterinary Livestock Development
Assistant Diploma course from Chaudhary Charan Singh Haryana Agricultural University, Hisar or the candidates having 2 Years Diploma with the same nomenclature i.e. VLDA course from any other institution recognised and approved by the Haryana Govt. are eligible to compete for the post of VLDA ignoring the fact that all the Universities which are specified in Appendix-E to 2011 Rules provide this 2 Years diploma in Veterinary Science with the different nomenclature, and as such, not providing the words "or equivalent diploma" in these Rules, approved by the Haryana Govt. as specified in Appendix E to 2011 Rules and also quashing the advertisement dated 10.07.2015 (P-27) which provides the same qualification as prescribed under the amended Rules 2011, taking away the right of the petitioners for consideration for regular appointment against the post of VLDA, being illegal, arbitrary, discriminatory, in colourable exercise of authority and in violation of Articles 14 & 16 of the Constitution of India; with a further prayer for issuance of a writ of Certiorari quashing the communication dated 24.09.2014 (P-25) vide which the Department of Animal Husbandry, Haryana has wrongly and illegally declared that two years Diploma of Animal Husbandry done by the petitioners from Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University is not equivalent to that of Two Years Veterinary Livestock Development Diploma course from Chaudhary Charan Singh Haryana Agricultural University, Hisar as the provisions of Veterinary Council Act, 1984 are binding on Government of Haryana; with a further prayer that a writ of Mandamus be issued directing the official respondents and the respondent Commission to consider the petitioners for recruitment against the post of VLDA advertised vide Advt. Dated 10.07.2015 (P-27) by treating them eligible and qualified for consideration in view of the fact that they have passed 2 Years diploma from a university duly approved by the Haryana Government as per Appendix-E to 2011 Amended Rules and with a further prayer that a direction may kindly be issued to the respondent Commission to accept the application forms of the petitioners for the post of VLDA advertised vide Advt. Dated 10.07.2015 and interview them provisionally during the pendency of writ petition.

2. That the aforesaid writ petition came up for hearing before Hon'ble Division Bench consisting of Hon'ble Mr. Justice Suryan Kant and Hon'ble Mr. Justice Sudip Ahluwalia on 17.05.2017. The relevant extract of the judgement is reproduced below:-

(17) There are some writ petitions including CWP No.24664, 25266 of 2015; 5346 of 2016 claiming that the institutions from where the petitioners have obtained their Diplomas are duly recognized under Appendix-E of the 1999 Rules. The writ petitioners, however, have not been treated eligible for the post of VLDA due to difference in nomenclature of the course. Liberty is granted to such writ petitioners to represent to the Director General, Animal Husbandry, Haryana who, in turn, is directed to constitute a team of three experts to examine the curriculum/syllabus of these Diplomas vis-à-vis Diplomas in VLDA Course and if it is found that their Diploma Courses are broadly the same, let these petitioners be treated eligible irrespective of the nomenclature of the Diplomas. Such an exercise shall be undertaken within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.

(18) Dasti.

Copy of the order dated 17.05.2017 is enclosed herewith.

3. That as per liberty granted to the petitioners by the Hon'ble Court in the aforesaid order, the petitioners have addressed a joint representation to the Director, Animal Husbandry, Haryana, Panchkula, requesting therein to reconsider the decision of the Govt. declaring them ineligible on the basis of qualification of Two Years Diploma in Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant prescribed in the amended rules called Haryana Veterinary Headquarters & Field (Group C) Service Rules, 2011, for the post of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant advertised vide Advt. Dated 10.07.2015 on regular basis in spite of the fact that they have passed two years Diploma from Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, (earlier known as Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner) and presently known as the Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner and Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner is duly approved by the Haryana Government at Sr.No.21 in Appendix-E to the amended Rules, only on the ground that the nomenclature of the Diploma in the State of Rajasthan is not Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant and in the main Rules, the word "or equivalent" is omitted, and consider them eligible for recruitment to the post of VLDA by treating them fully eligible and in case they come on merit, appointment letters be issued to them. Copy of the representation is enclosed herewith.

In view of the aforesaid orders of the Hon'ble Court, you are requested that order passed by the Hon'ble Court be complied with by constituting a team of three experts to examine the curriculum/syllabus of these Diplomas vis-à-vis Diplomas in VLDA Course and on examination if it is found that their Diploma Courses are broadly the same, these petitioners be treated eligible irrespective of the nomenclature of the Diplomas, within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order. In case the order of the Hon'ble Court is not complied with within the stipulated period, the petitioners will be constrained to approach the Hon'ble High Court again by filing a Contempt Petition, for which the entire responsibility will rest upon you.

A copy of this notice has been retained in my office for use in future, if need be.

Subject: Joint Representation.

Sir,

We, the following persons had filed CWP No.24664 of 2015 praying for a writ of Certiorari, quashing the Haryana Veterinary Headquarter & Field (Group C) Service (Amendment) Rules, 2011 to the extent that only the candidates who have passed 2 Years Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant Diploma course from Chaudhary Charan Singh Haryana Agricultural University, Hisar or the candidates having 2 Years Diploma with the same nomenclature i.e. VLDA course from any other institution recognised and approved by the Haryana Govt. are eligible to compete for the post of VLDA ignoring the fact that all the Universities/Institutions which are specified in Appendix-E to 2011 Rules provide this 2 Years diploma in Veterinary Science with the different nomenclature, and as such, not providing the words "or equivalent diploma" in these Rules, approved by the Haryana Govt. as specified in Appendix E to 2011 Rules and also quashing the advertisement dated 10.07.2015 which provides the same qualification as prescribed under the amended Rules 2011, taking away the right of the petitioners for consideration for regular appointment against the post of VLDA.

2. That the aforesaid writ petition came up for hearing before Hon'ble Division Bench consisting of Hon'ble Mr. Justice Suryan Kant and Hon'ble Mr. Justice Sudip Ahluwalia on 17.05.2017. The relevant extract of the judgement is reproduced below:-

(17) There are some writ petitions including CWP No.24664, 25266 of 2015; 5346 of 2016 claiming that the institutions from where the petitioners have obtained their Diplomas are duly recognized under Appendix-E of the 1999 Rules. The writ petitioners, however, have not been treated eligible for the post of VLDA due to difference in nomenclature of the course. Liberty is granted to such writ petitioners to represent to the Director General, Animal Husbandry, Haryana who, in turn, is directed to constitute a team of three experts to examine the curriculum/syllabus of these Diplomas vis-à-vis Diplomas in VLDA Course and if it is found that their Diploma Courses are broadly the same, let these petitioners be treated eligible irrespective of the nomenclature of the Diplomas. Such an exercise shall be undertaken within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.

(18) Dasti.

Copy of the order dated 17.05.2017 is enclosed herewith.

3.. We possess the qualification of Senior Secondary School Examination from Board of School Education and with Medical/Agriculture are also possessing the Two years Animal Husbandry Diploma course from the Faculty of Veterinary and Animal Science of Rajasthan Agricultural University, the name of which university was later changed as Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, Rajasthan and presently, known as Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner.

4.. That Government of Haryana framed Rules called, "Haryana Veterinary Headquarter & Field (Group C) Service Rules, 1999" which came into effect w.e.f. July 29, 1999. The Rules provide qualification and mode of appointment. The qualifications required under 1999 Rules for the posts of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant are reproduced as under:-

Sr. No.	Designation of post	Academic qualifications & experience, if any, for direct recruitment	Academic qualifications & experience, if any, for appointment other than by direct recruitment
27	Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant	i) Matric or its equivalent from any recognized University/Board/Institution ii) 2 Years Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant Diploma course	Xxxx xxxx

		from any recognised University. iii) Knowledge of Hindi upto Matric standard

5. The Govt. of Haryana issued Notification dated 28.02.2011 amending the Haryana Veterinary Headquarter & Field (Group C) Service Rules, 1999 by the rules called The Haryana Veterinary Headquarter & Field (Group C) Service (Amendment) Rules, 2011. For the kind perusal of this Hon'ble High Court, the qualification as per amended Rules for the post of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant is reproduced as under :-

1. Matric or its equivalent from any recognized Board, University or Institution;
2. Two year Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant diploma course from Chaudhary Charan Singh University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences, Hisar or any other institution recognized / approved by the Haryana Government, as specified in Appendix-E.
3. Knowledge of Hindi / Sanskrit upto Matric standard or higher education.
6. We have passed our respective Animal Husbandry Diploma courses from the Faculty of Veterinary & Animal Science of Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, Rajasthan earlier known as Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner and presently called, Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner, Rajasthan. In this regard, the relevant portion of the note mentioned below the mark sheets of diplomas possessed by us from Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Science, Bikaner is reproduced below for the kind perusal of this Hon'ble Court:

"The Government of Rajasthan in exercise of the power conferred by provisions in sub clause (b) of section 30 of the Indian Veterinary Council Act, 1984 [through amendment of earlier gazette notification [order of Department of Animal Husbandry, Government of Rajasthan No. 2(5)/AH/2003 dated 29.7.2006-S.O. 161 amending earlier order of even number dated 22.8.2003- No. F 4(2) Vidhi/2/2009 dated 9.6.2009 has notified that the name of the Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner shall be the Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University Bikaner and any reference to the earlier name shall be read and construed as a reference to the later, as altered by this notification.) From 13.5.2010, the Faculty of Veterinary and Animal Science of Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University has become a unit of the Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences Bikaner vide Rajasthan Gazette Notification Extraordinary dated 13.5.2010 [S.O. 108-No.2(25)AH/2009.]"

7. The Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, Rajasthan is an approved and recognized University by the Haryana Animal Husbandry Department at Serial No. 21 in Appendix 'E' of 2011 amended rules. The name of the Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, Rajasthan was changed through notification dated June 04, 2009 by the Governor of Rajasthan. The Diploma of Animal Husbandry of Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, Rajasthan and Rajasthan Agricultural University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner, Rajasthan broadly covers the Syllabus of the course of VLDA Diploma conducted by Chaudhary Charan Singh University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences, Hisar. It is specially mentioned that there is no other diploma in Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, Rajasthan earlier, and now known as Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, Rajasthan Veterinary Science except one passed by the petitioners.
8. That it is also relevant to mention here that as per Gazette Notification dated 28.2.2011 issued by Government of Haryana, the Rajasthan Agricultural University (RAU) Bikaner, Rajasthan is recognized university. It is further clarified that in the State of Rajasthan, the said post is called as L.S.A. and in Haryana the same post is called as VLDA. However, the qualification for the said post is the same and syllabus is also same but only the nomenclature of diploma/certificate is different.

9. As per the Haryana Veterinary Headquarter and Field (Group-C) Service (Amendment) Rules, 2011 (hereinafter referred to as Impugned Rules), a candidate is required to pass a particular diploma namely Veterinary and Livestock Development Diploma from Chaudhary Charan Singh Agricultural University or the other Universities mentioned in Appendix-E of these Rules. However, it is relevant to mentioned here that no other university has named its diploma similar to the name of diploma issued by the Chaudhary Charan Singh Agricultural University i.e. VLDA. However, the duration of the course completed by the petitioners from Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner i.e. Diploma in Animal Husbandry and Veterinary and Livestock Development and the Diploma obtained from Chaudhary Charan Singh Agricultural University, Hisar is of two years. Further as per the syllabus, the subjects are almost identical. More so, the core subjects are absolutely same, therefore, both qualifications can be recognized as equal, a further classification on the basis of the requirement of having a particular named diploma i.e. Veterinary and Livestock Development Diploma amounts to absolute institutional preference and not sustainable in the eyes of law.

10. The contention of your office in letter dated 24.9.2014 that two courses cannot be equated as the diploma course done by us is only specified for the State of Rajasthan is not sustainable in view of the objectives of the programme as contained in the prospectus of Animal Husbandry Diploma Programme issued by Rajasthan Agricultural University, which is reproduced as under:

"Programme shall be imparting educational qualification through which diploma holders shall become eligible to render, under the supervision and direction of a registered veterinary practitioner. Minor veterinary Service, as per the provision of the Section 30 (b) and its explanation, of the Indian Veterinary Council Act, 1984. The state government has already defined minor veterinary services (Rajasthan Gazette Extraordinary Part 4(G) Upkhand (II) notification dated 28.8.2003 of the department of Animal Husbandry No. 2(5)AH/2003 dated 22.8.2003, SO No. 226 and 221) and by order, permitted a person holding Diploma issued by RAU to render such services- (Rajasthan Gazette Extraordinary part 4(G) Upkhand (II) notification dated 1.8.2006 of the Department of Animal Husbandry No. 2(5) AH/2003 dated 29.7.2006, SO No. 161)"

11. Except the subject of English and Animal Product Technology, all the other subjects of both the universities are identical and cover the syllabus required for Live Stock Assistants in both the States. As far as the subject of English/English grammar is concerned, it is pertinent to mention here that the standards of criteria for admission in Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner is higher than that of Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Hisar. For securing admission in the course of diploma in Animal Husbandry in Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, a candidate is required to have the background of either Medical or Agriculture in Senior Secondary Examination. However, for admission in Veterinary and Live Stock Development Diploma in Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Science, Hisar, a candidate may have any stream in Senior Secondary Examination.
12. The Candidates of both the categories form one class for the purposes of seeking appointment and they have right to be considered for the same. In fact, considering the candidates who passed a Veterinary and Livestock Development Diploma from Chaudhary Charan Singh Agricultural University and excluding those who passed similar qualification from other recognized institutions amounts to irrational classification and also amounts to depriving such candidates, who has not passes a particular named diploma i.e. VLDD which is only provided by a particular institute, right to be considered for public appointment and is, therefore, violative of Article 16 of the Constitution as well.

13. That the requirement of a selected candidates to have completed Veterinary and Livestock Development Diploma as it is granted by Chaudhary Charan Singh Agricultural University, (now known as Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Science, Hisar) is also not rational. We are possessing the qualification of Diploma in Animal Husbandry from Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner is in line with the qualifications as prescribed by the Veterinary Council of India, the requirement of VLDD qualifications, in the impugned advertisement, even states that the candidates qualification should be from Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Science, Hisar only as except this University no other university as recognized by the respondent's department provides exactly the diploma of the same name and in that case is difficult to understand as to why the Director, Animal Husbandry, Haryana has included the 29 Universities in Appendix E to the Rules. The Particular Names of similar Diploma run by some of the recognized universities are as under:

Name of Institute	Name of Diploma
Assam Veterinary College affiliated to Assam Agricultural Universities (S.No. 3)	Graduate in Veterinary Science and Graduate in Veterinary
Bengal Veterinary College affiliated to West Bengal University of Animal and Fishery Sciences (Sr. No. 29)	Graduate of Bengal Veterinary College and Graduate in Veterinary Science.
Bihar Veterinary College affiliated to Birsa Agricultural University, Bihar (Sr. No.5)	Graduate of Bihar Veterinary College
Bombay Veterinary College affiliated to Bombay University	Graduate of Bombay Veterinary College
Madras Veterinary College affiliated to Tamilnadu Veterinary and Animal Science	Graduate of Madras Veterinary College

University (Sr. No.26)	Licensed Veterinary Practitioner
Punjab Veterinary College affiliated to Punjab Agricultural University, Ludhiana (Sr. No. 20)	(Conferred before 15.8.1947)

14. It is relevant to mention that 71 candidates including us were called for provisional interview in pursuance of the directions issued by the Hon'ble Court for provisional consideration for recruitment on contract basis against the posts of VLDA advertised vide advertisement dated 16.06.2015, but the Department could find only 500 candidates eligible as per the Rules against 785 posts of VLDA advertised for recruitment on contract basis for a period of one year or till regular selection and all the candidates who as per the impugned rules were eligible, were selected and figured in the list uploaded by the Department for recruitment on contract basis, meaning thereby that whosoever is eligible as per the impugned rules, is sure to be selected and appointed on contract/regular basis and there will not be any competition and merit.

15. The Department issued advertisement No.7/2015 published on 10.07.2015 inviting applications for regular recruitment against 797 posts of VLDA and the last date for submission of application forms is 23.11.2015 and as per the on-line application form, the petitioners who have passed 2 Years Diploma/ Certificate from Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, Rajasthan, earlier known as Rajasthan Agricultural University and presently, known as Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner, Rajasthan, will not be eligible to compete for the post of VLDA advertised vide Advt. dated 10.07.2015 irrespective of the fact that name of Rajasthan Agricultural University is duly approved by Haryana Government at Sr.No.21 of Appendix E of Amended Rules of 2011 only on the ground that in the main rules, only 2 Years Diploma of VLDA from Ch. Charan Singh University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences, Hisar (Haryana) is mentioned and the word "or equivalent" is not mentioned. It is also relevant to mention that we, who had acquired 2 Years Diploma are neither eligible to be considered for recruitment in Rajasthan as we are domicile of Haryana nor we are being considered eligible for regular recruitment in Haryana on the ground that the word "equivalent" is not mentioned in the main Rules, though the University from where they have passed is duly approved by the Haryana Government at Sr.No.21 of Appendix E of the impugned Rules.

16. The Government of Rajasthan, Department of Animal Husbandry vide letter No.P.2/13/AH/2000 dated 29.7.2003 addressed to Director, Animal Husbandry, Rajasthan, Jaipur granting permission to private institutes to establish Livestock Assistant Training Colleges at different places in the State of Rajasthan, subject to the fulfillment of certain parameters/rules/ conditions of the State Govt. One of the conditions laid down is that for practical training to the trainees undergoing, the Institute will make use of the nearest Veterinary Institute and Agricultural Farms of the Department upto five years and thereafter, it will be mandatory for the institute to make arrangements for the aforesaid facilities of its own. It was also laid down that the State Govt./ Director, Animal Husbandry Department, Rajasthan or its nominated person will be authorized to inspect the institute at any time. It implies that the provision of necessary infrastructure at the college will have to be ensured by the Institute itself to meet the requirements laid down by Govt. It was also made essential for the colleges to obtain affiliation of technical establishments. The State Govt. of Rajasthan also issued letter vide No.P.2(13)AH-2000/Part II dated 27.12.2004, whereby 24 institutions were granted permission to start Livestock Assistant course. It is brought on record that the Rajasthan Agricultural University, now known as Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner has been granting affiliation to the private institutes running Diploma of 2 Years duration in Animal Husbandry as is apparent from the letters dated 28.1.2010, 30.11.2010, 09.07.2012, 23.07.2013, 17.11.2014 & 07.10.2015 granting affiliation for the years 2009-10, 2010-11, 2012-13, 2013-14, 2014-15 & 2015-16, copies of which are annexed. It is also brought on record that the College of Veterinary & Animal Science, Bikaner, now called Rajasthan University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences, Bikaner vide office order dated 11.05.2015 constituted various inspection committees for inspection of all AHD P Institutes for the session 2015-16 and also enclosed inspection report for the session 2014-15. The Sardar Vallabh Bhai Patel Animal Husbandry College (Affiliated with the Rajasthan Veterinary and Animal Sciences University, Bikaner), Bhadra, District Hanumangarh issued a letter certifying that the inspection of Sardar Vallabh Bhai Patel Animal Husbandry College, Bhadra, District Hanumangarh which is Affiliated with the Rajasthan Veterinary and Animal Sciences University, Bikaner is done every year by the University or by officers authorized by Rajasthan Govt. and further certified that the A.H.D.P. course is conducted in the college by the Rajasthan Veterinary and Animal Sciences University, Bikaner which is valid for Govt. service on this post and the college also fulfills all the rules and conditions laid down by the above university.

17. It is relevant to mention that one Ramo Devi W/o Sh.Ram Dayal R/o Aali Brahaman Dixit Medical Store, Bus Stand, Hodal, Distt. Palwal sought information under the RTI Act, 2005, in pursuance of which, the Department of Animal Husbandry & Dairying, Haryana, Panchkula supplied the information to her vide letter No.RTI-22/17-4413 dated 29.03.2017 which contains letter NO.10997 E.2/2 dated 12.06.09 of Director General, Animal Husbandry & Dairying Department, Haryana addressed to the Commissioner & Secretary, Department of Animal Husbandry, Chandigarh. As per this letter, 2 Years Diploma passed from 25 Institutes including Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner from where the petitioners have passed 2 Years Animal Husbandry Diploma course, is a valid Diploma course. Copy of the letter dated 12.06.2009 alongwith the list of such Institutes is annexed as Annexure A-1.

18. It is also relevant to mention that along with letter dated 29.03.2017, a copy of letter No.854 SE-II dated 4.2.2010 has also been sent which contains a list of Diploma Certificate as has been approved through Technical Committee of the Department. As per the list enclosed with this letter, one candidate at Sr.No.13 of the list, namely Sanjeet Kumar S/o Shri Brij Lal has passed 2 Years Animal Husbandry Diploma Examination in 2008 from Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner (B.B.M.S. Animal Husbandry College, Jaipur), which has been shown as Valid and Acceptable. Copy of the letter dated 04.02.2010 alongwith the list is annexed as AnnexureA-2.

19. It is submitted that as per the Haryana Veterinary Headquarter and Field (Group-C) Service (Amendment) Rules, 2011, a candidate is required to pass a particular diploma namely Veterinary and Livestock Development Diploma from Chaudhary Charan Singh Agricultural University or the other Universities mentioned in Appendix-E of these Rules. It is relevant to mentioned here that no other university has named its diploma similar to the name of diploma conducted by the Chaudhary Charan Singh Agricultural University i.e. VLDA. However, the duration of the course completed by the petitioners from Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner i.e. Diploma in Animal Husbandry and Veterinary and Livestock Development and the Diploma obtained from Chaudhary Charan Singh Agricultural University, Hisar is of two years. Further as per the syllabus, all the topics studied during study in both the States are covered. More so, the core subjects are absolutely same, therefore, both qualifications can be recognized as equal, a further classification on the basis of the requirement of having a particular named diploma i.e. Veterinary and Livestock Development Diploma amounts to absolute institutional preference and is contrary to Article 14 of the Constitution. The categorization of the candidates in two classes, one who have passed VLDD (Veterinary and Livestock Development Diploma) and others who have passed the Diploma in Animal Husbandry from other recognized universities from other States is arbitrary and discriminatory and does not come within the purview of permissible classification. As per Article 16 of the Constitution of India, all the citizens have equal opportunity in matters of public employment. It is further relevant to mention that Rajasthan Government has declared the candidates who have done this diploma from recognized Institute eligible to perform minor veterinary services and they are eligible for Govt. job. It is relevant to add that petitioners having passed this diploma are eligible for Govt. job in Rajasthan from educational point of view but can not be appointed being non domicile of Rajasthan and in Haryana they are eligible to compete being domicile of Haryana but ineligible from education point of view and as such, they are neither here nor there.

In view of the submissions made above, as per directions of the Hon'ble Court, you are requested to reconsider the decision of the Govt. declaring us ineligible on the basis of qualification of Two Years Diploma in Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant prescribed in the amended rules called Haryana Veterinary Headquarters & Field (Group C) Service Rules, 2011, for the post of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant advertised vide Advt. Dated 10.07.2015 on regular basis in spite of the fact that we have passed two years Diploma from Swami Keshwanand Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner, (earlier known as Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner) and presently known as the Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner and Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner is duly approved by the Haryana Government at Sr.No.21 in Appendix- E to the amended Rules, only on the ground that the nomenclature of the Diploma in the State of Rajasthan is not Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant and in the main Rules, the word "or equivalent" is omitted, and consider us eligible for recruitment to the post of VLDA by treating us fully eligible and in case we come on merit, appointment letters be issued to us.

Thanking you,

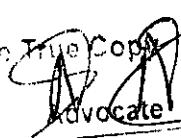

Yours faithfully,

Memo

With reference to your reference cited letter, you are hereby informed that the department of Animal Husbandry & Dairying Haryana has examined your representation keeping in view the judgment of Hon'ble High Court of Punjab & Haryana at Chandigarh dated 17.05.2017 in CWP No. 25485 of 2015 (O&M) & 56 others. The relevant part of the judgment, concerned with your representation in the bunch matter of 57 Civil Writ Petitions is reproduced as below:-

"(17) There are some writ petitions including CWP No. 24664, 25266 of 2015; 5346 of 2016 claiming that the institutions from where the petitioners have obtained their Diplomas are duly recognized under Appendix-E of the 1999 Rules. The writ petitioners, however, have not been treated eligible for the post of VLDA due to difference in nomenclature of the Course. Liberty is granted to such writ petitioners to represent to the Director General, Animal Husbandry, Haryana, who, in turn, is directed to constitute a team of three experts to examine the curriculum/ syllabus of these Diplomas vis-a-vis Diplomas in VLDA Course and if it is found that their diploma Courses are broadly the same, let these petitioners be treated eligible irrespective of the nomenclature of the Diplomas."

In compliance of the above orders passed by Hon'ble High Court, the Director General Animal Husbandry & Dairying Haryana constituted a team of three experts, vide Endst. No. 25605-09 dated 10.08.2017, to examine the curriculum/ syllabus of the diplomas obtained from the institutions included in Appendix-E of Haryana Veterinary Headquarter & Field Group-C Service Rules 1999 vis-à-vis Veterinary Livestock Development Diploma imparted by Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences (LUVAS) Hisar. The expert committee so constituted has submitted its report through Registrar Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences (LUVAS) Hisar. vide Endst. No. Regr./A-1/2017/4001-02+E dated 06.09.2017.

You had filed CWP No. 24664 of 2015 on behalf of your clients who had passed your Animal Husbandry Diploma from private institutes affiliated to Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner. In the report (copy of which is enclosed), the expert committee has compared the academic course contents & affiliation guidelines of the Animal Husbandry Diploma imparted by RAJUVAS, Bikaner with that of Veterinary Livestock Development Diploma imparted by LUVAS, Hisar.

As per report of the expert committee the subjects of Anatomy & Physiology are lacking in the all important topic of Central Nervous System in the course contents of RAJUVAS Bikaner, which is of utmost importance in providing minor veterinary services as envisaged in Section 30(b) of Indian Veterinary Council Act 1984. The expert committee in its report has further observed that the subjects of English & Animal Products Technology are totally missing in the course contents of RAJUVAS Bikaner. The missing subject of English in RAJUVAS course content creates practical problems in dispensing and delivery of different medications prescribed by qualified registered veterinary practitioners in the state. Likewise the subject of Animal Products Technology (which is missing in RAJUVAS course content) is quite essential for making dairying enterprise more enumerative for farmers as well as to provide safe quality food to consumers at an affordable price. Expert committee has also observed that RAJUVAS Bikaner course content is devoid of equine related topics, which is essential in providing minor veterinary services to the equine species. The topic of Bio-medical waste management is missing in the Bikaner course content, without which the bio medical waste generated during curative, prophylactic, diagnostic and breeding services provided to animals cannot be managed. The affiliation guidelines for the institutions desirous of affiliation with LUVAS Hisar are more elaborate & descriptive as compared to RAJUVAS Bikaner, which ensure quality education during the course of diploma. Apart from the above, there are many other aspects of course content & syllabus lacking in the diploma course imparted by Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner in comparison with that of Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Hisar.

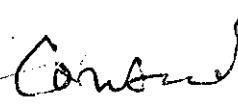

Significant differences have been reported by the committee of experts, which infers that curriculum & syllabus of the 2 years diploma course by LUVAS Hisar is more descriptive, elaborate, practical approach oriented and fulfil the requirement of Haryana Govt. for the implementation of its notified minor veterinary services and is as per requirement of the Haryana State plans, schemes and programmes in Animal Husbandry sector.

As per report of the expert committee the curriculum and syllabus of the Animal Husbandry Diploma imparted by Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences (RAJUVAS) Bikaner is significantly different from that of Veterinary Livestock Development Diploma imparted by Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences (LUVAS) Hisar and does not fulfil the requisite qualification for the post of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant (VLDA) in Haryana. Therefore, on the basis of report of the expert committee your clients are not eligible for the said post.

EXPERT COMMITTEE REPORT

In view of the judgment of Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court Chandigarh dated 17.05.2017 in CWP No. 25485 of 2015, a Committee of three experts has been constituted vide Director General Animal Husbandry & Dairying, Haryana Panchkula U.O. No. 7-I4, dated 14.06.2017. The Committee has been assigned with the task of comparing the curriculum/syllabus of the diploma passed by representing petitioners from institutions which are affiliated with the universities included in Appendix-E of the Haryana Veterinary Headquarter and Field (Group-C) Services, Rules, 1999 as amended in 2011 and submitting its opinion, whether, the two diplomas in question are broadly same or not.

The members of the committee of three experts are as under :-

1. Dr. Kalyan Singh Joint Director (Admn.) Directorate of Animal Husbandry & Dairying Haryana, Pashudhan Bhawan, Panchkula.
2. Dr. R. K. Malik, Professor Department of V.P.B. Lalalajpat Rai University of Veterinary Science & Animal Husbandry, Hisar.
3. Dr. D.S. Bidhan, Asstt. Professor Department of L.P.M. Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary Sciences & Animal Husbandry, Hisar.

From the perusal of representations received from petitioners, there is only one university which has been included in the Appendix-E of Haryana Veterinary Headquarter and Field (Group-C)

Services, Rules, 1999 amended in 2011, which is Rajasthan Agricultural University Bikaner (Rajasthan), the nomenclature of which was changed to Swami Keshwanand Agricultural University, Bikaner, which was bifurcated into Swami Keshwanand Agricultural University Bikaner & Rajasthan University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences Bikaner. Therefore, the assigned task of comparison of curriculum/syllabus of the diploma in question has been restricted to between Institute of Para Veterinary Sciences, Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary Sciences & Animal Husbandry Hisar (Haryana) & Rajasthan University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences Bikaner (Rajasthan).

While preparing the expert committee report, following aspects of the two diploma courses in question have been thoroughly scrutinized.

- i) Comparison of the syllabus of two years Veterinary Livestock Development Diploma (VLDD) imparted by the institutions affiliated with Institute of Para Veterinary Sciences, Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary Sciences & Animal Husbandry, Hisar (Annexure-1) with that of two years Animal Husbandry Diploma (AHD) imparted by institutions affiliated with Rajasthan University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences Bikaner (Annexure-2).
- ii) Comparison of the affiliation guidelines for institutions providing diploma course for affiliation with Institute of Para Veterinary Sciences & Animal Husbandry, Hisar (Annexure-3) with that of affiliation guidelines for institutions for affiliation with Rajasthan University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences Bikaner (Annexure -4).

For the sake of convenience for submitting this report the Institute of Para Veterinary Sciences, Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary Science & Animal Husbandry, Hisar shall be forth be termed as 'IPVS LUVAS' and Rajasthan University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences Bikaner as 'RAJUVAS'. The observations and opinion of the committee on the basis of analysis/scrutinization of due parameters above from I & ii are submitted as under :-

(1) COMPARISON OF THE ACADEMIC COURSE CONTENTS:

A. In the two years academic diploma course, in the subject of Introductory Anatomy of Domestic Animals, the topic of Central Nervous System is included in the IPVS LUVAS course contents, whereas this important topic does not find any place in RAJUVAS syllabus for the diploma.

Observation of the expert committee: The preliminary knowledge of Central Nervous System is of utmost importance to provide Minor Veterinary Services under the supervision and direction of registered veterinary practitioner as envisaged in Section 30 (b) of Indian Veterinary Council Act 1984.

13. In the two years academic diploma course, in the subject of Introductory Physiology of Domestic Animals, the topic of Physiological functioning of Nervous System is included in the IPVS LUVAS course contents, whereas this important topic does not find any place in RAJUVAS syllabus for the diploma.

Observation of the expert committee: The preliminary knowledge of physiology of Nervous System is of utmost importance to provide Minor Veterinary Services under the supervision and direction of registered veterinary practitioner as envisaged in Section 30 (b) of Indian Veterinary Council Act, 1984.

B. In the two years academic diploma course, the subject of English, with credit hours of 2+1 has been included in the IPVS LUVAS course contents, whereas the subject of English is totally missing in the syllabus of RAJUVAS affiliated institutions.

Observation of the expert committee : The missing subject of English in the Syllabus of Animal Husbandry Diploma imparted by RAJUVAS affiliated institutions creates practical difficulties in dispensing and delivery of different medications for the diploma holders as almost all of the prescriptions by the qualified registered veterinary practitioners are prescribed in English language. Moreover all the allopathic medicines/drugs & their literature are labeled/written in English language. Therefore, non-inclusion of the subject of English in the syllabus of RAJUVAS is a big hindrance for diploma holders in providing minor veterinary services under the supervision and direction of registered veterinary practitioner.

- D. In the two years academic diploma course, the subject of Introduction to Animal Products Technology with credit hours of 1+0 has been included in the IPVS LUVAS course contents, whereas the subject of Introduction to Animal Products Technology is totally missing in the syllabus of RAJUVAS affiliated institutions.

Observation of the expert committee: The non-inclusion of the subject of Animal Products Technology in the syllabus of RAJUVAS is not in line with the requirements of the State of Haryana. Because the subject of Animal Products Technology is quite essential for not only making dairy enterprise more remunerative for the farmers but also to provide safe & quality food to the consumers at an affordable price. Course contents of Animal Husbandry Diploma of RAJUVAS as lack in important aspects of Animal production such as handling, storage and distribution of meat, poultry and eggs, candling & grading of eggs, milk definition and its composition, factors affecting composition and quality of milk, elementary knowledge about nutritive value, source of bacterial contamination of milk and clean milk production, C.O.B. and alcohol tests, PH by indicator paper, specific gravity test, estimation of at, S.N.F. and T.S. in milk, processing, packaging and distribution of milk.

C. In the two years academic diploma course, the topics related with equines mentioned below have been included in the IPVS LUVAS course contents, whereas these are totally missing in the syllabus of RAJUVAS affiliated institutions:-

- i) Salient physiological features of equine musculoskeletal, respiratory and reproductive system.
- ii) Commonly used feed and forages for equines, role of minerals and vitamins in equine feeding, nutritional problems associated with horses.
- iii) Different techniques of handling and restraining of equine, body weight and age estimation of horses, foot care (normal and abnormal hoof shape, hoof trimming, rasping etc).
- iv) Introduction to equine breeds and their characteristic, elementary knowledge of economic traits of equine breeding.
- v) Elementary knowledge of common non infectious diseases of equines viz colic, lameness & azoturia, elementary basic knowledge of common infectious diseases viz bacterial, viral & parasitic (name, etiology & clinical signs only, tetanus vaccination in equines).
- vi) Basics of foaling and foal management.
- vii) Bandaging of equine limb, use of hoof testers, fitting of mouth gag in equines.

Observation of the expert committee: The equines (horses, mules, ponies & donkeys) are imperative fragment of livestock count of the State of Haryana.

Because this species of animals has to be handled, controlled, treated and taken care of differently in a specified approach, unlike other livestock species. Therefore, non-inclusion of equine related topics in the course contents of RAJUVAS affiliated institutions is not in the interest of the State of Haryana, because without the knowledge of these topics providing minor veterinary services shall be a threat to the life of equines of the State.

- F. In the two years academic diploma course, the all-important topic of Bio-medical waste management has been included in the subject of Pharmacy in the IPVS LUVAS course contents, whereas the topic of Bio-medical waste management is totally missing in the syllabus of RAJUVAS.

Observation of the expert committee: The topic of Bio-medical waste management is the study through which the waste generated by way of providing treatment/prophylaxis/diagnostic/breeding services to different species of animal & birds. The lack of knowledge of Bio-medical waste management is not only hazardous for environmental point of view but may lead to zoonotic diseases and outbreaks. Therefore, non-inclusion of the topic of Bio-medical waste management in the course contents of RAJUVAS affiliated institutions is not in the interest of the State of Haryana.

- G. In the two years academic diploma course, the all important practical subject of Introduction to Clinical Procedures & Farm Animals Practoices is of 0+6 credit hours in the syllabus of IPVS LUVAS, whereas in the syllabus of RAJUVAS the equivalent subject known by the name of Hospital Practice Course is of non-credit.

Observation of the expert committee: Introduction to Clinical Procedures & Farm Animals Practices is the course taught in IPVS LUVAS affiliated institutions, through which students are exposed to practical work at Hospital & Farm. The students learn practically how to provide minor veterinary services to animals and birds in the veterinary hospital and Animal farm. This all important course is of 0+6 credit in IPVS LUVAS, which means that the students are evaluated for this and are awarded marks, which constitute their academic excellence. Whereas as in the syllabus of RAJUVAS affiliated institutions the equivalent course is of non-credit, meaning thereby that the students are not evaluated & awarded marks for inclusion in their diploma certificate but only judged as satisfactory or unsatisfactory.

COMPARISON OF AFFILIATION GUIDELINES FOR THE INSTITUTIONS DESIRIOUS OF AFFILIATION

1. Formation of Inspection Committee for Pre-Inspection/Inspection of Institution for affiliation.

IPVS LUVAS: Rule (4) The inspection committee for affiliation of institution is constituted by Director IPVS in consultation with Dean, COVS, LUVAS, Hisar and with the approval of Vice Chancellor. The committee should have at least four members preferably from HODs LPM/Vety. Pharmacology/Vety. Anatomy/Vety. Bio-Chemistry and Physiology/Animal Nutrition/ Director TVCC. The senior most member of the Committee will act as Chairman and the junior most will act as member secretary.

RAJUVAS Rule (7): Inspection Committee will submit its report to the University. RAJUVAS if it desires can get the report of Inspection Committee reviewed/examined from any officer/head of faculty (In Rajasthan in the Veterinary Field for regulating the services of Diploma holders, Council (Regulatory Institutions) has not been constituted and in the process of its constitution, regarding the role of council, the matter is being considered by the University.

Observation of the expert Committee: The inspection committee for pre-inspection/ inspection of institutions desirous of affiliation with university/college is well defined by IPVS LUVAS, whereas it is not so in case of RAJUVAS affiliation guidelines.

Assessing financial background of the Organization

IPVS LUVAS: Rule (5) The institutions desirous of affiliation with LUVAS has to demonstrate adequate financial strength by furnishing a bank guarantee of Rs. 50,00,000/- (Rupees Fifty lac) in favour of Director, IPVS, within two months of start of academic session. In case the affiliated institution fails to complete the course after having started the same, the money in the form of bank guarantee shall be forfeited by the Director, IPVS.

The bank guarantee of Rs. Fifty Lacs deposited by the affiliated institutes will be retained by the Director, IPVS, LUVAS for a period of Five years after the first batch of VLDD diploma students admitted through LUVAS has passed out and thereafter the amount will be reviewed.

RAJUVAS: There are no guidelines assessing adequate financial strength of the organization desirous of affiliations with RAJUVAS.

Observation of the expert committee: To safe guard the future of prospective students desirous of seeking diploma IPVS LUVAS has evolved a mechanism, so that only organizations/ trusts which are capable of providing quality infrastructure/ faculty/ education are allowed to establish diploma institute, whereas no such checks have been devised by RAJUVAS affiliation guidelines.

Conductance & Control of Examination

IPVS LUVAS: Rule (14) The entire process of conduct of final/ end term examinations, evaluation and issued for the diploma course shall be under the control and supervision of the Director IPVS, LUVAS, Hisar.

" the annual theory examinations of all the VLDD" Course (LUVAS (not legible) affiliated institutes/ colleges) will be conducted by Directorate of Para Veterinary Sciences at the LUVAS Campus. The annual practical examination of all the VLDD course will be conducted by the respective institutes/ Colleges at their own campus, however, surprise checks for monitoring the proper conduct of the practical examination will be done by the Directorate of IPVS. The date sheet of examination for both theory and practical will be prepared by the Directorate which will be uniformly followed by the constituents Colleges/ Institutes. The complied result will be submitted to the Director, IPVS within a week after the end of practical examination by the incharge, VLDD Section of LUVAS/ Principal/ Dean of Affiliated Institutes/ Colleges.

RAJUVAS Rule 16 (B) : The examinations will have to be held strictly in accordance with the directions of University. In this regard, the compliance of directions issued by the Controller of Examination/University issued from time to time will have to be ensured. Recording of the examination of the students by CCTV Cameras, as per directions applicable at present, will be compulsory.

Observation of the expert committee: To ensure quality education IPVS LUVAS has full control of the examination conductance for affiliated institutions in its affiliation guidelines, whereas it is not so in case of RAJUVAS affiliation guidelines.

4. Faculty

IPVAS LUVAS: Rule (17) The minimum faculty strength for a diploma course for a batch of sixty students shall be one Principal and four faculty members (Vety. Surgeon/ Instructor) having same qualifications as approved in LUVAS. The principal must be basically a veterinarian and possess a Master degree (M.V.Sc.) in any discipline of Veterinary sciences with a minimum of 10 years experience in teaching research, Extension of field service. The faculty shall be appointed on a full time basis and the upper age limit shall be 68 years.

The affiliated institute shall recruit the staff members for teaching to the diploma students as per norms. The names of qualification of faculty members should be communicated to the Director, IPVS minimum 30 days before the counselling schedule as per prospectus of LUVAS. In addition to the above staff members required as per norms, one English teacher is also required for teaching of a English course to the VLDD students. However, the institutions may appoint the English teacher on regular/ contractual basis. His name & qualification should also be communicated along with the list of other staff members.

RAJUVAS: Rule 13 Private Institution must have consist the following staff.

Sr. No.	Posts and eligibility	No.
1	Principal- B.V. SC and A.H. and M.V. SC and B.V.SC and A.H. and 20 years experience in the area of Animal Husbandry	1
2	Training Officer-B.V.SC and A.H.	2
3	Laboratory Assistant (AHDP)	1
4	Computer Operator Diploma or Certificate in Computer Application.	1
5	Clerk (10+2)	1

Observation of the expert committee: In case of IPVS LUVAS affiliation guidelines the teacher to student ratio is 1:15, whereas for RAJUVAS affiliation guidelines it is 1:25.

5. In house Clinic & Veterinary Hospital

IPVS LUVAS: Rule (18) The affiliated institutions shall have its in-house well equipped, clinic, with adequate functional clinic manpower and having at least 30 outdoor cases per day, if the in-house clinic is not functional to the satisfactions of the University, then the affiliated institutions will have to make arrangements for attachment of its students to suitable Government Veterinary Hospital (s) and get the same approved by the University provided the number of outdoor cases in such hospital(s) is/are sufficient.

RAJUVAS: Rule 12 : If the State Govt. has exempted the other Institutions/Govt. Institutions of State from practical then upto the end of this exemption, the institution will have to create its own facilities.

Observation of the expert committee: IPVS LUVAS has notified clear guidelines for affiliated institutions to arrange In house Clinic & Veterinary Hospital, whereas in case of RAJUVAS no clear cut guidelines have been notified.

6. Infrastructure

i) Land Requirement

IPVS LUVAS: Rule (7) Annexure-1(1) Minimum ten acres of land on long term lease or ownership in the name of institution. As per rule 10 of expression of interest invited by Govt. of Haryana, minimum ten acres of contiguous land should have been registered/ long term leased for a minimum period of 30 years in the name of the applicant Society/ Trust on or before the date of submission of the proposal and should be free from any encumbrance. Ratio of carpeted area and open and circulation area in the campus should be at least 1:1.

RAJUVAS: Rule 15: The property on which training College has to be set up by the Institution, the land building of the same shall be compulsorily in the ownership of Institution. At the time of inspection, the building can be on registered lease for a long period (minimum ten years), which may be legally valid and documents in this regard will have to be produced. On finding any other training work or activity relating to the course running in the Animal Husbandry Diploma Institution, the affiliation of the Institution will be cancelled.

Observation of the expert committee: IPVS LUVAS has specified the area for the establishment desirous of imparting diploma course, where as it not so for RAJUVAS affiliation guidelines.

ii) Constructed Building

IPVS LUVAS: Rule (7) Annexure-1 (2) A. Administrative Block:

- a. 300 square feet carpet area for academic head of the institution.
- b. 250 square feet carpet area for the office of the supporting staff.
- c. 500 square feet carpet area as a reception place.
- d. 200 square feet carpet area for the store.
- e. Separate toilets for staff, students and girls/ladies.

B. Academic Block including labs and library:

- a. 150 square feet carpet area for each faculty member.
- b. 3000 square feet carpet area for the library.
- c. 1200-1500 square feet carpet area each for two lecture halls preferably fitted with audio visual aids.
- d. 1200-1500 square feet carpet area each for two laboratories.
- e. 3000 square feet carpet area for multipurpose hall.

RAJUVAS: Rule 16. For admission 50 students in a private Animal Husbandry Diploma Institution (2 years Animal Husbandry Diploma Course), the following Land and Building will be compulsory.

(A) Institution Building:-

Sr. No.	Building	No.	Area
1.	Lecture/Examination Hall (for 50 students)	2	Minimum 800 square feet
2.	Laboratories	1	Minimum 600 square feet
3.	Library	1	Minimum 600 square feet
4.	Principal Room	1	Minimum 150 square feet
5.	Staff Room	1	Sufficient Room
6.	Assistant Employees Room	1	Sufficient Room
7.	Computer Room	1	Sufficient Room

Observation of the expert committee: The building infrastructure guidelines notified by IPVS LUVAS are more conducive for academic excellence as compared to RAJUVAS affiliation guidelines.

C. Veterinary Hospital

IPVS LUVAS: Rule (7) Annexure-1 (2) C. Veterinary Hospital: A functional in-house/ attached veterinary hospital of the level of polyclinic/ district level Govt. Veterinary Hospital to be constructed on a plot of one acre having the required facilities for diagnosis and treatment of medicinal, surgical and gynaecological & obstetrical ailments in animal (Annexure 1-A). If an attached hospital of desired level is not functional, then interim permission may be given for two years, in a hospital of desired level. The In-charge hospital shall submit the certificate certifying that the students have attended the clinic along with their attendance and the work report which may be verified by the University periodically.

RAJUVAS: There is no clear cut mention of establishment/ arrangement Veterinary Hospital in the affiliation guidelines.

Observation of the expert committee: To impart quality practical, on-hand training & real life experience in providing minor veterinary services the notified guidelines by IPVS LUVAS ensure establishment/ arrangement of a quality multi-specialty veterinary hospital, whereas it is not the same for RAJUVAS affiliation guidelines.

D. Animal Farm

IPVSLUVAS: Rule (7) Annexure-1 (2) D. Animal Farm:

- a. Four acres for animal farm including fodder and pasture facilities. The minimum number for different livestock is as follows: i. Cattle = 15-20, ii. Buffalow = 15-20 iii. Sheep & goat = 40-60 iv. Poultry= 250-300.
- b. Priorities: To train the students with respect to management, nutrition and breeding activities.
- c. Personnel: Farm manager/ Farm supervisor, VLDA, Animal attendants (minimum four), sweepers (minimum two) and chowkidar.
- d. Equipment: As per annexure 1-B.
- e. Shed/ Water: As per standard requirements for the specified no. of animals, there should be proper sheds and water arrangement.
- f. Circulation area: Sufficient area should be provided.

Annexure- (1) B

RAJUVAS: Rule 16 (N) :

Enclosures-8

(N) For Training Livestockyard/ Animal Farm should have minimum animals.

- (i) Cow and Buffalo- 05
- (ii) Sheep and Goat-05
- (iii) Chickens- 25

Or the Institution can enter into a contract with any Livestock yard/Animal Farm/Gaushala and use their facilities. Similarly, the Institution can use the Govt. Veterinary Hospital with regard to training regarding Veterinary as per conditions laid down by the Government.

Observation of the expert committee: IPVS LUVAS has notified establishment of a well-defined Animal Farm, specifying area, number of animals, personnel, equipments, shed etc. in the institutions desirous of affiliation to impart diploma course. All these facilities are essential for students to learn practically with respect to management, nutrition and breeding activities, whereas in case of RAJUVAS affiliation guidelines the standard is not up to the desired level.

OPINION OF THE EXPERT COMMITTEE: We have had a thoughtful and critical scrutinization of the course contents and notified affiliation guidelines for institutions, for the conductance of Veterinary Livestock

Development Diploma imparted by IPVS LUVAS Hisar and Animal Husbandry Diploma by RAJUVAS Bikaner. On the basis of our observation from A to G & 1 to 6 above, we have reached to the resolute conclusion that the curriculum & syllabus of the 2 years diploma course by IPVS LUVAS is more descriptive, elaborative, practical approach oriented and fulfill the requirements of the Haryana Govt. for the implementation of its notified minor veterinary services (Annexure-5). Moreover the curriculum & syllabus of IPVS LUVAS has been drafted and notified as per requirement of the Haryana State for the implementation of its plans/ schemes/ programmes in Veterinary & Animal Husbandry sector. Whereas the curriculum & course of RAJUVAS lacks in many aspects (as observed above in the report) in fulfilling the Veterinary & Animal Husbandry related requirements of the Haryana State. Therefore, the curriculum & syllabus of the two diplomas in question are not broadly the same.

Reference: Your letter no. Nil dated 01.06.2017.

Memo

With reference to your reference cited letter, you are hereby informed that the department of Animal Husbandry & Dairying Haryana has examined your representation keeping in view the judgment of Hon'ble High Court of Punjab & Haryana at Chandigarh dated 17.05.2017 in CWP No. 25485 of 2015 (O&M) & 56 others. The relevant part of the judgment, concerned with your representation in the bunch matter of 57 Civil Writ Petitions is reproduced as below:-

"(17) There are some writ petitions including CWP No. 24664, 25266 of 2015; 5346 of 2016 claiming that the institutions from where the petitioners have obtained their Diplomas are duly recognized under Appendix-E of the 1999 Rules. The writ petitioners, however, have not been treated eligible for the post of VLDA due to difference in nomenclature of the Course. Liberty is granted to such writ petitioners to represent to the Director General, Animal Husbandry, Haryana, who, in turn, is directed to constitute a team of three experts to examine the curriculum/ syllabus of these Diplomas vis-a-vis Diplomas in VLDA Course and if it is found that their diploma Courses are broadly the same, let these petitioners be treated eligible irrespective of the nomenclature of the Diplomas."

In compliance of the above orders passed by Hon'ble High Court, the Director General Animal Husbandry & Dairying Haryana constituted a team of three experts, vide Endst. No. 25605-09 dated 10.08.2017, to examine the curriculum/ syllabus of the diplomas obtained from the institutions included in Appendix-E of Haryana Veterinary Headquarter & Field Group-C Service Rules 1999 vis-à-vis Veterinary Livestock Development Diploma imparted by Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences (LUVAS) Hisar. The expert committee so constituted has submitted its report through Registrar Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences (LUVAS) Hisar vide Endst. No. Regr./A-1/2017/4001-02+E dated 06.09.2017.

You had filed CWP No. 1495 of 2017 and had passed your Animal Husbandry Diploma from Shri Sant Ram Das Tyagi Livestock Assistant Training Institute, Deeg Bharatpur, a private institute affiliated to Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner. In the report (copy of which is enclosed), the expert committee has compared the academic course contents & affiliation guidelines of the Animal Husbandry Diploma imparted by

RAJUVAS, Bikaner with that of Veterinary Livestock Development Diploma imparted by LUVAS, Hisar.

As per report of the expert committee the subjects of Anatomy & Physiology are lacking in the all important topic of Central Nervous System in the course contents of RAJUVAS Bikaner, which is of utmost importance in providing minor veterinary services as envisaged in Section 30(b) of Indian Veterinary Council Act 1984. The expert committee in its report has further observed that the subjects of English & Animal Products Technology are totally missing in the course contents of RAJUVAS Bikaner. The missing subject of English in RAJUVAS course content creates practical problems in dispensing and delivery of different medications prescribed by qualified registered veterinary practitioners in the state. Likewise the subject of Animal Products Technology (which is missing in RAJUVAS course content) is quite essential for making dairying enterprise more enumerative for farmers as well as to provide safe quality food to consumers at an affordable price. Expert committee has also observed that RAJUVAS Bikaner course content is devoid of equine related topics, which is essential in providing minor veterinary services to the equine species. The topic of Bio-medical waste management is missing in the Bikaner course content, without which the bio medical waste generated during curative, prophylactic, diagnostic and breeding services provided to animals cannot be managed. The affiliation guidelines for the institutions desirous of affiliation with LUVAS Hisar are more elaborate & descriptive as compared to RAJUVAS Bikaner, which ensure quality education during the course of diploma. Apart from the above, there are many other aspects of course content & syllabus lacking in the diploma course imparted by Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner in comparison with that of Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Hisar.

Significant differences have been reported by the committee of experts, which infers that curriculum & syllabus of the 2 years diploma course by LUVAS Hisar is more descriptive, elaborate, practical approach oriented and fulfil the requirement of Haryana Govt. for the implementation of its notified minor veterinary services and is as per requirement of the Haryana State plans, schemes and programmes in Animal Husbandry sector.

As per report of the expert committee the curriculum and syllabus of the Animal Husbandry Diploma imparted by Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences (RAJUVAS) Bikaner is significantly different from that of Veterinary Livestock Development Diploma imparted by Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences (LUVAS) Hisar and does not fulfil the requisite qualification for the post of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant (VLDA) in Haryana. Therefore, on the basis of report of the expert committee you are not eligible for the said post.

Introduction

The Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner was established through a legislative act (No.13 of 2010) of Rajasthan state and became functional on 13th May, 2010 with a mandate to impart quality professional education, to develop technologies suitable for promoting animal production in the state of Rajasthan, to transfer the technologies to field functionaries and to develop a center of higher learning, research and extension in the field of veterinary and animal science.

A two year training course of Livestock Assistant was being run till academic session (2006-07) by the Department of Animal Husbandry, Govt. of Rajasthan at four of its own institutes located at Jaipur (Bassi Chak), Kota, Jodhpur and Udaipur and many private institutions under approval from Govt. of Rajasthan. The state government had decided that, from the session 2007-08, the programme should be run by College of Veterinary and Animal Science (CVAS) under affiliation to Rajasthan Agricultural University, Bikaner subsequently by the Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences (RAJUVAS), Bikaner after its formation from May, 2010 as CVAS became part of RAJUVAS. Accordingly, RAJUVAS decided to run similar programme as Diploma in Animal Husbandry at its own constituent college and affiliated institutions. List of provisionally and conditionally affiliated institutions is given in Annexure and at the web site www.rajuvas.org

Objectives of the Animal Husbandry Diploma Programme

The programme shall be imparting educational qualification through which Diploma holders shall become eligible to render, under the supervision and direction of a registered veterinary practitioner, minor veterinary services, as per the provisions of the section 30 (b) and its Explanation, of the Indian Veterinary Council Act, 1984. The State Government has already defined minor veterinary services (vide Rajasthan Gazette Extraordinary Part 4 (G) Upkhand (II) notification dated 28.8.2003 of the Department of Animal Husbandry No. 2(5) AH/2003 dated 22.8.2003, S.O. No. 226 and 227) and by order, permitted a person holding Diploma issued by RAU to render such services (vide Rajasthan Gazette Extraordinary Part 4(G) Upkhand (II) notification dated 1.8.2006 of the Department of Animal Husbandry No. 2(5) AH/2003 dated 29.7.2006, S.O. No. 161).

Affiliation

Guidelines and minimum norms of affiliations for private institutes were issued wide University notification No. F(36)/RAJUVAS/Reg/Gen/2016/439 dated 29/09/2016 in pursuance of State Government order No. क्र.प 6 (1) पपा /2016 dated 22/07/2016 which are available on the University website www.rajuvas.org.

Duration of the course

Two years (Academic Sessions) comprising of four semesters and maximum four years to complete the course.

Medium of instruction

To facilitate the need of the students, the programme is run both in english and hindi medium. The institutes shall have to declare the medium of instruction before counselling.

1. Study of bones – Glossary of osteology, classification, work and identification of various bones of the body of cow, horse, dog, sheep, pig and poultry and comparison thereof.
2. Study of joints and hinges of the body.
3. Study of muscles and tendons of leg and neck.
4. Study of skin and others e.g. epidermis, dermis, hypodermis, sweat glands of skin, horn, claws, chestnut etc.

Practical

Practical introductory study of following using charts, models and basic laboratory facilities:

1. Study of bones –identification of various bones of the body of cow, horse, dog, sheep, pig and poultry and comparison thereof.
2. Study of joints and hinges of the body.
3. Study of muscles and tendons of leg and neck.

Semester II

Name of the Course: Introductory Veterinary Anatomy-II (General Splanchnology)
Course No. AHD-112; Cr. Hrs. 3 (2+1)

Theory

1. Cell Structure, tissue structure
2. Digestive system—mouth, tonsils, pharynx, esophagus, ruminant and non-ruminant stomach, small intestine, large intestine, associated organs and digestive gland for digestion.
3. Respiratory system—nostril, nasal cavity, sinus, pharynx, larynx, trachea, lungs, thorax, pleura, respiratory physiology.
4. Circulatory system—heart, blood arteries, veins, portal circulation, foetal circulation, lymphatic system.
5. Excretion system—structure of kidney, ureter, bladder, urethra, structure of nephrons etc.
6. Female genital system—ovary, uterine tube, uterus, vagina, vulva, blood arteries, and nerves related to genital system.
7. Male genital system—testis, scrotum, epididymis, ductus deferens, penis, muscles, blood arteries, nerves related to genital system, accessory sex glands, secondary sex characters.
8. Structure of udder.

Practical

Practical introductory study of following using charts, models and basic laboratory facilities:

1. Cell Structure, Tissue Structure
2. Digestive system—mouth, tonsils, pharynx, esophagus, ruminant and non-ruminant stomach, small intestine, large intestine, associated organs and digestive gland for digestion.

7. Male genital system—testis, scrotum, epididymis, ductus deferens, penis, muscles, blood arteries, nerves related to genital system, accessory sex glands and secondary sex characters.
8. Structure of udder.

Paper – II: Introductory Veterinary Physiology and Biochemistry

Semester I

Name of the Course: Introductory Veterinary Physiology and Biochemistry -I
Course No. AHD-121; Cr. Hrs. 3 (2+1)

Theory

1. General Physiology and Biochemistry of muscles i.e. smooth, cardiac, voluntary striated muscles.
2. General Physiology and Biochemistry of body fluids: Formation of blood cells, haemopoiesis, plasma, serum, blood pH, blood clot formation, various types of blood cells, lymph, cerebrospinal fluid, synovial fluid, macrophages and immunity.

3. General Physiology and Biochemistry of digestive system - Chemical structure of food viz. carbohydrate, fat, protein, minerals, vitamins, biochemical agents etc. Pr̄ehension, mastication, swallowing, gastric movements, physiology of small and large intestine, digestion in ruminants and non-ruminants and their comparative study, various enzymes used during digestion, absorption of feed ingredients, metabolism of protein, carbohydrate and fat. Digestive glands e.g. salivary glands, gall bladder, pancreas and their functions.
4. General Physiology and Biochemistry of respiratory system - Mechanism of respiration, respiratory action, dead space, artificial respiration, exchange of gases etc

Practical

1. Haematology laboratory : an introduction
2. Laboratory glass ware, equipments, microscope etc. : Basic knowledge
3. Collection of blood samples from various animals and birds
4. Anticoagulants
5. Separation of serum and plasma
6. Preservation of serum and plasma
7. Introductory study of blood cells
8. An Introduction to basic techniques: Enumeration of erythrocytes and leucocytes, Determination of PCV, ESR, Differential leukocyte count (DLC), Haemoglobin.
9. Study of digestive system of various animals using charts and models
10. Demonstration of collection of rumen liquor
11. Study of respiratory system of various animals using charts and models
12. Study of various types of muscles using chart and models

Semester II.

Name of the Course: Introductory Veterinary Physiology and Biochemistry -II
Course No. AHD-122; Cr. Hrs. 3 (2+1)

Theory

1. General Physiology and Biochemistry of circulatory system- Cardiac cycle, conduction system of heart, nervous control of blood flow, shock (blood volume and pressure), Venous and lymphatic return, theory of vaccination and immunity in animals.
2. General Physiology and Biochemistry of urinary system- Physiology of kidney and nephron.
3. General Physiology and Biochemistry of female genital system- Puberty, oogenesis, ovulation, formation of corpus luteum, estrous cycle, hormones of female reproduction system, pregnancy and parturition.
4. General Physiology and Biochemistry of male reproduction system – Erection, ejaculation, hormones of male reproduction system, factors affecting working of testis, sex determination, spermatogenesis, spermatozoa, working of accessory glands.
5. General Physiology and Biochemistry of milk letdown - Structure of udder, milk secretion, galactopoiesis, letdown of milk, formation of colostrum, milk fat and milk protein, agalactia.

Practical

1. Study of circulatory system of various animals using charts and models.
2. Study of cardiac cycle using charts.
3. Study of urinary system.
4. Study of kidney using charts and models.
5. Study of male reproductive system using charts and models.
6. An introduction to semen evaluation: Assessment of motility of spermatozoa, total spermatozoa count and Live and dead spermatozoa count.
7. Study of female reproductive system using charts.

10. Study of functional morphology of udder.
11. Demonstration of milk let down by using model.
12. Basic knowledge of hormones for pregnancy diagnosis in animals.

Paper – III: Introductory Animal Management

Semester I

Name of course: Introductory Animal Management-I
Course No. AHD 131; Cr Hrs 4 (2+2)

Theory

1. General management of domestic animals.
2. Economic importance of animals and their products.
3. Identification of various body parts of domestic animals and poultry.
4. Information of various breeds habitat, characteristics features of Cattle, Buffalo, Sheep, Goat, Camel, Pig, and Poultry of Rajasthan state, information of exotic breeds.
5. Animal management- general information like handling of animal and their control, use of nose ring and bull holder etc.
6. Ageing of Cattle, Buffalo, Sheep, Goat, Camel and-Horse.
7. Weighing methods of animals.
8. Methods of identification of domestic animals by branding, tattooing, ear-tagging and ear-notching etc.
9. Normal temperature, pulse and respiration of animals.
10. Vaccination schedule for domestic animals and poultry.

Practical

Practical introductory study of following using charts, models and basic laboratory facilities and farm practices.

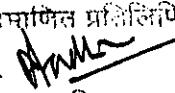

1. Handling and restraining of animals by taking around animal house and veterinary hospitals.
2. Weighing and identification of animals
3. Castration of male calf and dehorning of calf.
4. Detection of normal body temperature, respiration and pulse. Familiarization of various body parts of domestic animals.

Semester II

Name of Course: Introductory Animal Management-II
Course No AHD; Cr Hrs 4(2+2)

Theory

1. Different type of housing of domestic animals viz. Cow, Sheep, Goat, Horse, Camel and Poultry. Lacunae of animal house in village and their remedies.
2. Care and management of cow- during and after parturition, parturition at separate, sanitize chamber, prevention from milk fever, sign and symptoms of parturition, shedding of placenta and post-parturient care.

3. Care and management of dry cow- reason for drying of cow (non- milking), various methods of drying, management of pregnant cow.
4. Care and management of calf before and after birth, their identification, castration, dehorning and prevention from disease.
5. Care and management of dairy bull, training, housing, exercise for breeding etc.
6. Production of milk- purpose, method, pathogenic agent and prevention thereof.
7. Hygiene care and sanitation of animal houses, dispose of animal excreta and other wastes, disposal methods of solid and liquid manure and recycling of manure and its use.
8. General management of broiler and layer.

Practical

Practical introductory study of following using charts, models and basic laboratory facilities:

1. Ideal animal house- visit and study thereof.
2. To visit poultry farm and study thereof.
3. Methods of disinfection of animal house and milking utensils.
4. Care and management of calf, pregnant cow, lactating cow.
5. Methods of milking of animals

PAPER -IV: Animal Husbandry Extension

Semester I

Name of the Course: Animal Husbandry Extension-I

Course No. AHD-141; Cr. Hrs. 3 (2+1)

Theory

1. Economic importance of animal husbandry in state.
2. Characteristics of formal, non-formal and informal education.
3. Introduction to animal husbandry extension education.
4. Role of extension education in animal husbandry development.
5. Basic knowledge of Community development.
6. Steps of extension teaching.
7. Teaching methods in extension.
8. Leadership and their classification.
9. Role of leaders in animal husbandry extension.
10. Identification of key communicators in rural area.
11. General information of various animal husbandry extension programmes.
12. Goushala development programme.
13. Introduction of animal fairs and exhibitions.
14. Preparation of animal for show.

Practical

1. Preparation of a poster for display in extension activity.
2. Preparation of a chart for display in extension activity.
3. Elementary knowledge of farm publication for extension work.
4. Difference between tribal, rural and urban community.
5. Leadership qualities for field extension work.
6. Identification of local leaders for field extension work.
7. Primary knowledge for organization of mass meeting at village level.
8. Writing of Advisory letter to the animal owner.
9. Writing of Circular letter to the animal owner.
10. Essential exercise for exhibition.

13. Visit to dairy farm/ ideal village.

Semester II

Name of the Course: Animal Husbandry Extension-II
Course No. AHD-142; Cr. Hrs. 3 (2+1)

Theory

1. Important terms use in extension education.
2. History of animal husbandry development programmes.
3. Animal husbandry developmental activities.
4. Peculiar points related to poultry, sheep, goat and swine production.
5. Animal husbandry administration in Rajasthan and their functions.
6. Role of LSA in veterinary organizations.
7. Important managemental practices on animal farm.
8. Information about milk recording, herd registration and bull registration.
9. Essential information on Artificial Insemination & its importance.
10. Fundamental of breeding programme for improving animal production.
11. Concept of breeding policy.
12. Vaccination and vaccination schedules.
13. Farmers training and group discussion.
14. Introduction about various scientific techniques.

Practical

1. Introduction to audio-visual aids.
2. Principle of an audio-visual aids.
3. Advantages of an audio-visual aids.
4. Introduction to various teaching aids.
5. Some information on gendering and breeding of domestic animals.
6. Important records maintained in veterinary hospitals.
7. Importance of records keeping.
8. Record keeping at dairy farm.
9. To conduct group discussion.
10. Different projects running in RAJUVAS Bikaner.
11. Transfer of technology for animal husbandry development.
12. Preparation of project report for dairy unit.
13. Visit to animal health camps/livestock fair.

PAPER – V: Introductory Animal Breeding and Genetics

Semester I

Name of the Course: Introductory Animal Genetics
Course No. AHD-151; Cr. Hrs. 2 (1+1)

Theory

1. Heredity and variation – definition and classification etc.
2. Chemical basis of DNA – structure and transformation of DNA

सूचना के अधिकार के

3. Basic concepts of genetics and reproduction
  - a. Cell division – mitosis and meiosis.
  - b. Linkage and crossing over
  - c. Mendelian principles of inheritance – monohybrid and dihybrid inheritance
  - d. Modification in monohybrid and dihybrid mendelian ratio
  - e. Number and types of chromosomes in livestock and poultry
  - f. Multiple alleles
  - g. Mutation – its types, effects and mutagenic agent
4. Sexual heredity
  - a. Homologous, heterologous
  - b. Sex determination
  - c. Sex linked, sex influenced and sex limited inheritance

Practical

1. Gametogenesis, cell structure
2. Problems based on monohybrid and dihybrid inheritance
3. Basic statistical principles – estimation of mean, variance, standard deviation and standard error

Semester II

Name of the Course: Introductory Animal Breeding

Course No. AHD-152; Cr. Hrs. 2 (I+I)

Theory

1. Breeding rules
  - a. Inbreeding – types, uses, genetic and phenotypic effects
  - b. Out breeding - types, uses, genetic and phenotypic effects
  - c. Selective breeding
  - d. Livestock breeding strategies in Rajasthan
  - e. Selection and culling
  - f. Basis and types of selection
2. Techniques to improve performance
3. Importance and maintenance of pedigree record, progeny record and breeding record

Practical

1. Estimation of inbreeding coefficient
2. Estimation of relationship coefficient
3. Pedigree and breeding records
4. Basic computer operative principles

Farm Practice (Non-Credit Course)

Course no. AHD 161; Cr. Hrs. (0+6) First semester and AHD 162; Cr. Hrs (0+6) second semester

Hands on training and demonstration on proper housing, rearing and hygiene practices and maintenance of domestic / Farm animals like cattle, sheep, goat, pigs, horse, camel and poultry etc.

Course No. AHD 211; Cr. Hrs. 3 (2+1)

Theory

1. Glossary of pharmacology viz. Indian pharmacopoeia, British pharmacopoeia, meteorology.
  2. Weights and measures; their symbol used during prescription.
  3. Description of the Roman words used in the prescriptions.
  4. Compounding and dispensing, powders, mixtures, electuary, ointment, lotion, paste, pulvis, procedure and application/uses.
  5. Route of administration of drugs viz. per os, per nose, per rectum, in urogenital tract, topical application etc. injections i.e. intravenous, intramuscular, subcutaneous, intratracheal, intra ruminal.
  6. Posology/doses factors affecting dose rate viz. age, body weight, sex, environment, habitat, disease, route of administration, effect of drug, rate of excretion of drug.
  7. Pharmaceutical classification, table of veterinary formulae and pharmacopial formulae viz. manufacturing drugs having base as water, alcohol, vinegar, oil etc.
  8. Result of drug action.
  9. Classification of drugs on the basis of their action e.g. mouth antiseptic, stomachic, aromatic, antisialics, gastric antacid, and anti emetics, carminative, purgative, laxative, astringent, anthelmantics, diuretics, ecbolic, galactogogue, uterine anti coagulant, haemostatic, haematinic, vasodilator, vasoconstrictor, bronchodilator, bronchoconstrictor, expectorant, respiratory stimulant, respiratory sedative, cerebral stimulant, analgesic, sedative, hypnotic, narcotics, tranquillizers, anesthetic, euthanasia, mydiatriatic, myotic, antipyretic, alterative tonic, nutrient, vitamins, anti histaminics, anti inflammatory, irritant, caustic, traumatic, refrigerants, detergents, deodorants, antibiotics, antiseptics, anti-parasitic.

Practical

1. An introduction to basic pharmacology laboratory.
  2. Basic knowledge of weights, measures and weighing.
  3. An introduction to compounding and dispensing.
  4. Powders
  5. Mixtures
  6. Electuary
  7. Ointment
  8. Lotion
  9. Paste
  10. Pultice
  11. Administration of drugs viz. per os, per rectum, injections (I/M, I/V, S/C, I/ruminal) etc.
  12. To understand prescription of veterinarian and to treat animal accordingly.
  13. Functions of alcohol, potassium permanganate, iodine, paraffins, wax etc. in pharmacology preparations.

Semester II

Name of course: Introductory Veterinary Pharmacology -II

Course No. AHD 212; Cr. Hrs. 3 (2+1)

Theory

1. Materia Medica

- a) Alkali metal and ammonia- sodium chloride, sodium hydroxide, sodium carbonate, sodium bicarbonate, potassium chloride, potassium permanganate, potassium carbonate.

potassium bicarbonate, potassium nitrate, potassium iodide, sodium citrate, ammonium chloride, liquor ammonia fort, ammonium carbonate, spirit ammonia aromaticus.

- b) Alkali earth metal- calcium chloride, calcium gluconate, calcium borogluconate, calcium lactose, calcium phosphate, calcium hydroxide, creatapreparata, plaster of paris, magnesium carbonate, magnesium sulphate.
- c) Heavy metals – Aluminium hydroxide, kaolin, lead acetate, zinc sulphate, zinc oxide, calamine, copper sulphate, silver nitrate, mercurous chloride (calomel), bin iodide of mercury, mercurochrome, argirol, pretargol, ferrous sulphate, ferric chloride, tincture ferri-perchloride, cobalt chloride.
- d) Metalloids- bismuth carbonate, bismuth sub nitrate, potassium antimony tartrate (tartar emetics), acetyl arsan, suramin, arsenic trioxide, calcium glycero phosphate.
- e) Non-metal halogen- chlorine, iodine, oxygen, sulphur (sublimed), wood charcoal.

2. Systemic Pharmacology

- a) Drugs action on Brain, nervous system – volatile general anaesthetic (chloroform, ether, trilene, ethylene,  $CCl_4$ ), Narcotics (Alcohol), chloral hydrate, urea derivatives (Barbiturates) sulfonyl group (Sulfonal), Alkaloid narcotics (opium, morphine, codeine), Cannabis, Cocaine, Nux vomica, Nikethamide, musk, Belladonna, hyoscyamus, Dhatura stramonium, vasaka, Tobacco, carbachol.
- b) Drugs action on digestive system -
  - i. Digestive ferments, vegetable bitters and sweetening agents–pulv zinger, malt, pepsin, sucrose, honey, saccharine.
  - ii. Purgative–castor oil, tincture asafetida, oil of alsi, croton oil, linseed oil, aloe
  - iii. Emollients and demulcents–olive oil, groundnut oil, cotton seed oil, mustard oil, coconut oil, liquid paraffin, glycerin, gum acacia, starch, barley.
  - iv. Vegetable astringent–tannic acid, catechu.
  - v. Volatile oil.
  - vi. Carminative group – clove oil, cardamom, coriandrum, antithum, anisi, cinnamon.
  - vii. Counter irritant group – Turpentine, eucalyptus, capicum, black pepper, garlic, onion.
- c) Urinary antiseptic and diuretic –sandle wood
  - i. Solid volatile oil–camphor, menthol, thymol.
  - ii. Aloe, Guin, Resins–Asafoetida.
- d) Anthelmentic
  - i. Round worm and hook worm–oil of chinapodium, piperazine adipate, diethyl/carbamazine  $CCl_4$ .
  - ii. Stomach worm–Fenovas, promentic, Butia semina, Beronia.
  - iii. Tapeworm–Nux acacia, Diclorofen, Kamala, Pumpkin seed
  - iv. Fluke worm– $CCl_4$
  - v. Blood worm–Tarter emetics, Neguvon
- e) Drugs action on circulatory system–cardiac depressant (aconite) cardiac tonic (digitalis, siquil) vasoconstrictor (adrenaline, amphetamine), vasodilator (amyl nitrate).
- f) Drugs act on respiratory system–expectorant (ipecacuhana)
- g) Drugs act on reproductive system–Caffeine, sodium salicylate, potassium nitrate, theobromine, theophylline, ergot, oxytocin.
- h) Drugs act on skin (integumentary system)–paraffin, vaseline, lard wax, gamaxene, soap, detergent, cetramide etc.
- i) Dosage and mode of action of sulpha drugs and antibiotics used for the treatment of animal disease.
- j) Incompatibility, toxic drugs and prevention thereof.

- Collection of blood, urine, faeces and milk for laboratory examination and dispatch of samples.
- To prepare carminatives.
- To prepare astringents.
- Common names and uses of counter irritants, purgatives, urinary antiseptics, anthelmintics. Incompatibility of drugs.

Paper-II: Introductory Veterinary Medicine

Semester I

Name of the Course: Introductory Veterinary Clinical Medicine

Course No. AHD-221; Cr. Hrs. 3 (1+2)

Theory

- Clinical examination of sick animal.
- Signs of health and disease in different animals.
- Significance of temperature, respiration and pulse in animals.
- Care of sick animals and care of neonates.
- Etiology, symptoms, treatment, prevention and control of following diseases.
  - Diseases of digestive system—stomatitis, pharyngitis, choke, simple, indigestion, acid indigestion, alkaline indigestion, constipation, tympany, impaction of rumen, colic, enteritis, traumatic reticulitis, intestinal obstruction etc.
  - Diseases of respiratory system—upper respiratory tract infection, pneumonia, drenching pneumonia, pleurisy etc.
  - Diseases of urinary system—urinary tract infection, nephritis, cystitis etc.
  - Diseases of nervous system—meningitis, encephalitis etc.
  - Diseases of skin, eye and ear—dermatitis, eczema, scabies, conjunctivitis, otitis etc.
  - Diseases of musculoskeletal system—myositis etc.
  - Disease of circulatory system—traumatic pericarditis etc.
  - Metabolic diseases—milk fever, downer cow syndrome, ketosis, post parturient hemoglobinuria, hypomagnesaemic tetany etc.
  - Deficiency diseases—vitamins & minerals deficiencies.

Practical

- Different methods of administration of drugs in animals and birds.
- Recording of symptoms of disease, temperature, pulse and respiration of animals and birds.
- Passing of stomach tube, probang, catheter etc in animals.
- Cleansing & sterilization of glasswares etc.
- Separation of serum and plasma from blood.
- Different staining method of blood films.

Semester II

Name of the Course: Introductory Veterinary Preventive Medicine

Course No: AHD-222; Cr. Hrs. 3 (1+2)

Theory

Etiology, symptoms, treatment prevention and control of following infectious diseases.

- Bacterial diseases – Anthrax, Hemorrhagic Septicemia, Black Quarter, Brucellosis, Tuberculosis, Paratuberculosis, Actinomycosis, Actinobacillosis, Leptospirosis.

- Salmonellosis, Colibacillosis, Contagious Caprine Pleuro Pneumonia, Tetanus, Enterotoxaemia, Botulism, Bacillary haemoglobinuria, Foot rot and Mastitis etc.
- b) Viral diseases – Rinderpest (R.P.), Foot and Mouth disease (F.M.D.), Pox (cow pox, sheep pox, goat pox, fowl pox etc.) Rabies, bovine malignant catarrh, mucosal disease complex, ephemeral fever, mycoplasma, African horse sickness, Ranikhet diseases, Marek's diseases, Pullorum disease, Chronic Respiratory Disease (CRD), Bird flu and Gumboro disease.
  - c) Fungal diseases – Ring worm and Aflatoxicosis.
  - d) Protozoan diseases – Theileriosis, Babesiosis, Surra, Leishmaniasis and Coccidiosis etc.
  - e) Rickettsial diseases - Anaplasmosis etc.
  - f) Parasitic diseases of animals – Parasitic gastroenteritis in ruminants, Hemonchosis in ruminants, Ascarid infestations, Strongylosis, Lungworm infestation, Fasciolosis, Amphistomosis, Tapeworm infestations, Nasal bots, Ticks infestation, Louse infestations and Mites infestations etc.

Practical

1. Method of collection and examination of blood, faeces, urine, milk, skin scrapings from animals etc. for laboratory diagnosis.
2. Different methods of administration of vaccines in animals & birds.
3. Cleaning and sterilization of glasswares etc.
4. Separation of serum and plasma from blood.
5. Different staining methods.

Paper-III: Minor Veterinary Surgery

Semester I

Name of the Course: Minor Veterinary Surgery-I

Course No. AHD-231; Cr. Hrs. 3 (1+2)

Theory

1. Methods of sterilization
2. Definition of sepsis and asepsis.
3. First aid for animal wound.
4. Anaesthetization of animal
5. Suturing of skin and the instrument used thereof.
6. Firing, tattooing, dehorning and docking.

Practical

1. Awareness and uses of surgical instruments.
2. Sanitization/sterilization of instruments used in hospital, first-aid and bandaging of wounds etc.

Semester II

Name of the Course: Minor Veterinary Surgery-II

Course No. AHD-232; Cr. Hrs. 3 (1+2)

Theory

1. Firing, tattooing, dehorning and docking.
2. First aid of wound, abscess.
3. Dislocation, sprain in animals – Sign and treatment.
4. Various types of bone fractures and their treatment
5. Knowledge of instrument, used in laboratory or hospitals.

Paper IV- Introductory Animal Reproduction*Semester I

Name of the Course: Introductory Animal Reproduction-I
Course No. AHD-241; Cr. Hrs. 3 (1+2)

Theory:

Anatomy and physiology of male and female reproductive organs, reproductive endocrinology, introductory chemistry and functions of reproductive hormones, puberty. Estrous cycle, signs of estrus and estrous detection, properties of estrous mucus, gestation and pregnancy diagnosis, parturition. Introduction of spermatogenesis, breeding soundness examination (BSE) of males, collection of semen, testing of fresh semen (macroscopic and microscopic), introduction of preservation of semen, handling of frozen semen, methods of artificial insemination and record keeping and follow up of inseminated females. Introduction of andrology, preliminary knowledge of male infertility, ailments of testes, penis, prepuce etc., infectious reproductive diseases of males.

Practical:

Reproductive examination of female, pregnancy diagnosis, practice of intrauterine pipetting, examination of fern pattern of estrous mucus, testing of frozen semen, techniques of artificial insemination. BSE of male, collection of semen, testing of fresh semen. Castration of male. Handling, care, maintenance and sterilization of various materials and instruments used in reproductive techniques, keeping of reproductive records.

Semester II

Name of the Course: Introductory Animal Reproduction II
Course No. AHD-242; Cr. Hrs. 3 (1+2)

Theory:

Introduction of gynaecology, infectious and noninfectious female infertility □ delayed puberty, congenital defects, hypoplasia of ovaries, cystic ovarian degeneration, anestrus, repeat breeding problem, infectious and venereal causes of infertility, metritis, pyometra. Abnormal gestation, abortions and other complications of gestation like mummification, maceration, hydropsy of pregnancy etc. Dystocia, maternal and fetal causes of dystocia, uterine torsion, cervico-vaginal and uterine prolapse, retained fetal membranes.

Practical:

Name, use and maintenance of gynaecological and obstetrical instruments, administration of intrauterine medicines, practice of handling of dystocia using phantom box, foetotomy operations, management of cases of prolapse, retained fetal membranes, uterine torsion, name

PAPER – V: Introductory Animal Nutrition

Semester-I

Name of the Course: Introductory Animal Nutrition-I

Course No. AHD-251; Cr. Hrs. 2 (1+1)

Theory

1. Composition of animal body and plants.
  2. Nutritional terms and their definitions.
  3. Common feeds and fodders, their classification, availability and importance for livestock and poultry production.
  4. Various physical, chemical and biological methods of feed processing for improving the nutritive value of inferior quality roughages.
  5. Preparation, storage and conservation of livestock feed through silage and hay and their uses in livestock feeding.
  6. Harmful natural constituents and common adulterants of feeds and fodders.
  7. Feeding standard, their uses and significance, merit and demerits of various feeding standard with reference to ruminants.
  8. Use of NPN compounds for ruminants.

1 Practical

1. Familiarization of various feed stuff, fodder and their selection.
  2. Preparation and processing of samples for chemical analysis – herbage, faeces, urine and silages.
  3. Demonstration of laboratory ensiling of green fodders. Silage pit preparation.
  4. Improving nutrient state of low quality fodder by Physical methods.
  5. Improving nutrient state of low quality fodder by Chemical methods.
  6. Improving nutrient state of low quality fodder by Biological methods.

Semester II

Name of the Course: Introductory Animal Nutrition-II

Course No. AHD-252; Cr. Hrs. 2 (1+1)

Theory

1. Importance of minerals (major and trace elements) in health and production, their requirements and supplementation in feed.
  2. Importance of vitamins in health and production, their requirements and supplementation in feed.
  3. Feed additives in the rations of livestock and poultry.
  4. Balanced ration and its characteristics.
  5. General principles of computation of rations
  6. Formulation of rations and feeding of dairy cattle and buffaloes during different phases of growth, development and production (neonate, young, mature, pregnant, lactating and dry animals; breeding bull and working animals).
  7. Formulation of ration and feeding of sheep during different phases of growth, development and production (milk, meat and wool).

VLDD-COURSE CONTENTS

VLDD -I INTRODUCTORY ANATOMY OF THE DOMESTIC ANIMALS 1+1

Theory

Introduction to arrangement of different bones of axial and appendicular skeleton of ox with comparison to that of horse (only identification). Classification of bones.

Introduction to different organs of digestive, respiratory, urinary, male and female genital systems circulatory and central nervous systems of ox.

Practical

Identification of bones and different organs of various systems of ox.

VLDD- II INTRODUCTORY PHYSIOLOGY OF DOMESTIC ANIMALS 1+1

Theory

Physiological functioning of digestive system, respiratory system, cardiovascular system, renal system, reproductive system and nervous system of domestic animals.

Practical

1. General precautions to be taken in physiology laboratory.
2. Collection of blood from domestic animals.
3. Separation of plasma and serum from blood.
4. Methods of collection of urine in domestic animals.
5. Macroscopic and microscopic examination of urine.
6. Methods of collection of rumen liquor.
7. Measurement of ruminal movements.
8. Recording of body temperature.
9. Recording of respiration rate.
10. Recording of heart rate.
11. Measurement of growth in animals.

VLDD- III ELEMENTARY PRINCIPLES OF ANIMAL NUTRITION 1+1

Theory

Elementary description of nutrients and their requirements for maintenance, growth, reproduction, lactation, egg production, wool production and work production: General principles of feeding and common practices for different categories of live-stock: A brief description of production of common fodder crops including pastures and knowledge about common grasses.

R. N. H. S.

197

- a) Preparation, preservation and storage of hay and silage.
- b) Common feed and fodder, their classification and identification.

Practical

Elementary knowledge of computation of ration for different types of live-stock and poultry :
Silage and hay making

VLDD- IV INTRODUCTION TO LIVE-STOCK & POULTRY MANAGEMENT 2+1

Theory

Important definitions related to animal management, care of animals (Cattle, Sheep, goat and Swine) during and after parturition, housing of animals: Routine management practices like grooming, washing, dipping, casting, shearing and exercising: Raising and feeding of farm animals: Signs of health in different animals: Care of sick animals: Milking management: Control of vices of animals: Introduction to feeding and management of horses and camels. Importance of Poultry farming: Elementary knowledge of incubation and hatchery management; Management of chicks, growers and layers: Poultry housing and feeding: Vaccination against poultry diseases.

Practical

Live Stock

Visit to various animal farms. External body parts of different animals. Methods of approaching and handling animals (casting, lifting of hind leg, foreleg, etc). General managemental practices followed in the farm (dipping, spraying, grooming, exercising, Debudding, castration, etc). Methods of identification (Branding, tagging, tattooing, ear notching, etc). Determination of age. Determination of body weight. Familiarization with daily farm operations. Detection of vices and control measures. Feeding of animals. Milking of animals. Detection of heat in animals. Methods of recording temperature, pulse and respiration. First aid and method of administration of medicine. Record keeping in the farm.

Poultry

Survey of the Poultry farm. Handling and identification of Birds. Study of External body parts of birds. Breeds and Varieties of various species of poultry. Study of the reproductive system of fowl. Study of the digestive system of fowl. Structure and composition of egg. Selection and care of hatchable eggs. Incubation of eggs and hatching of chicks. Pedigree hatching. Brooding and rearing of Chicks. Debeaking of birds. Selection and culling of chickens. Poultry housing. Poultry feeding. Prevention and control of poultry diseases. Maintenance of poultry records.

VLDD- V INTRODUCTION TO ANIMAL BREEDING 1+1

Theory

1. General terms used in animal breeding.
2. Important breeds of live-stock (Cattle buffalo, sheep, goat and swine) and poultry, their origin distribution and breed characteristics.
3. Basis of selection.
4. Selection of a Breeding Bull and a Dairy Cow/Buffalo.
5. Methods of selection.
6. Economic utility characters of different species of live-stock and poultry.
7. Importance of live-stock record keeping and various types of records.
8. Elementary knowledge of breeding systems.

Practical

Identification of various breeds of live-stock and poultry. Recording of breeding data. Animal Data Generation. Estimation of Breeding Efficiency. Estimation of Most Probable Production Ability (MPA).

VLDD- VI ENGLISH

Theory

- a) Text for Comprehension entitled 'The Pointed Vision edited by Usha Bande and Krishan Gopal, Oxford Univ. Press'
- b) Vocabulary: Synonyms, Antonyms, Words often confused.
- c) Applied Grammar: Voice, Narration, Tense
- d) Letter Writing: Voice, Narration, Tense
- e) Report Writing (150 words) : 1) Pashu Mela
2) Animal care Clinic
3) Inauguration of a Veterinary Clinic.
4) Road Accident
5) Spread of a disease among animals
6) Village Panchayat Meeting.

Practical

- 1) Listening Comprehension
- 2) Reading Comprehension
- 3) Facing an Interview
- 4) Group Discussion

VLDD -VII PHARMACY 3+1

Theory

Definitions of terms: Pharmacology, Pharmacy, Chemotherapy, Therapeutics, Toxicology, Posology, Metrology etc. Sources and nature of drugs ; Routine Pharmaceutical processes ; Various dosage forms with suitable examples ; Principles of compounding and dispensing of drug preparations ; Different methods for the administration of drugs ; Pharmacy weights and measures- Apothecary & metric system; Household measures ; Prescription reading- parts of prescription and commonly used Latin abbreviations in prescription writing ; Broad therapeutic classification of drugs employed in Vety. Practice- Definitions examples and therapeutic uses in animals.

Practical

Identification of common drugs; Labeling and storage of common drugs: Compounding and dispensing of pharmacy preparations.

VLDD- VIII ELEMENTARY ANIMAL HUSBANDRY EXTENSION 1+1

Theory

1. Animal Husbandry Extension - Meaning, concept, levels, functions, philosophy and principles.
2. Communication - Definition, elements, models, barriers and factors affecting communication.
3. Adoption - Definition, stages of adoption, adopter's categories and factors affecting adoption of animal husbandry practices.
4. Audio-Visual Aids - Meaning importance in veterinary and animal husbandry extension, selection criteria of suitable A.V. aids and their limitation.
5. Extension Methods- Meaning, concept, classification and their relative merits and demerits.
6. Programme planning – Meaning, objectives, principles and steps in programme planning.
7. Extension programmes launched by State Department of Animal Husbandry and SAU/SVU for the development of animal husbandry sector.
8. Need assessment of livestock farmers and problems identification.

Practical

1. Handling of eposcope, slide, overhead and multimedia projectors
2. Preparation of visuals: Pamphlets, folders, posters, charts, transparencies, flash cards, flip charts etc.
3. Writing for cattle owners: Advisory letters, circular letters, news item
4. Group discussion on situational/ contemporary animal husbandry problems.

5. Dealing with farmers visiting the veterinary hospitals
6. Identification of field problems of livestock owners
7. Conducting practical demonstrations for livestock owners
8. Maintenance of veterinary hospitals and its surroundings
9. Building team work and dignity of labour
10. Conducting socio-economic surveys and data collection for livestock census

VLDD-IX INTRODUCTION TO ANIMAL PRODUCTS TECHNOLOGY 1+0

Theory

Handling, storage and distribution of meat, poultry and eggs. Candling and grading of eggs (also to be demonstrated in theory classes). Milk definition and its composition; Factors affecting composition and quality of milk; Elementary knowledge about nutritive value; Source of bacterial contamination of milk and clean milk production. Sampling; C.O.B. and alcohol tests; pH by indicator paper; Specific gravity test; Estimation of fat, S.N.F and T.S in milk (also to be demonstrated in theory classes). Milk collection; Legal standards of milk; Processing, packaging and distribution of milk.

VLDD-X ELEMENTARY MEDICINE 3+1

Theory

Preliminary knowledge about signs of diseases; Clinical methods of examination and detection of abnormalities ; Abnormal body discharge ; Body temperature, pulse and respiration ; Methods of injecting drugs, sera, vaccine etc ; Use of canula, passing stomach tube, probang, teat syphon and other instruments for treatment ; General agents responsible for causing diseases: Bacteria, Viruses, Fungi and Parasites ; General principles of prevention and control of diseases ; Utilization and disposal of carcasses ; Elementary clinical diagnostic methods, history and general examination.

Non infectious diseases - symptoms and first aid of following diseases:

Stomatitis, Choke, Upper respiratory tract infections, Tympany, Impaction, Constipation, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Indigestion, Pneumonia, Haemoglobinuria, Milk fever, Ketosis, Pica in camels, Retention of urine.

Infectious diseases - Symptoms and first aid in the following diseases :

Bacterial and Viral diseases : Johne's disease, Mastitis, Haemorrhagic septicemia, Anthrax, Black Quarter, Tetanus, T.B., Enterotoxaemia, Rinderpest, Rabies, Swine Fever.

Parasitic diseases : Babesiosis, Theileriasis, Trypanosomiasis, Coccidiosis, Ascariasis: Control of flies, lice, ticks and mites and mange.

Poultry diseases : Ranikhet disease, Fowl pox, Salmonellosis.

Common camel diseases

Vaccination : Elementary Knowledge about vaccination of Domestic animals & Poultry.

201

Practical

Cleaning of slides, glass wares and other laboratory equipments ; Techniques of staining and preparation of blood smears ; Care and use of Microscopes ; Collection, processing for examination of blood, urine, faeces ; Collection, preservation, fixation and dispatch of morbid material for laboratory examination.

VLDD-XI INTRODUCTION TO SURGICAL PROCEDURES 2+1

Theory

Introduction and common terms used in Surgery : Sterilization in surgical practice ; Introduction to superficial surgical ailments ( Abscess, Fistula, Sinus, Wounds, Gangrene Cyst ) ; Introduction to dental care ; Introduction to hoof management ; First aid management of fracture, bloat, haemorrhage ; Introduction to post operative management ; Application and uses of various antiseptics, lotions, ointments and tinctures in surgical practice.

Practical

Preparation of pack for autoclaving ; Surgical attires and their uses by the Surgeon ; Operation room discipline ; Dressing of wounds and bandages ; Identifications of various surgical instruments ; Physical restraint of animals for surgery ; Various injections ; Burdizzo castration ; Preparing animals for surgery ; Application of counter irritants, heat, cold fomentation.

VLDD- XII INTRODUCTION TO REPRODUCTIVE DISORDERS 2+1

Theory

Introduction to reproductive patterns of live-stock ; Genital organs of male and female ; Transport of materials from abortions ; Assistance in holding obstetrical cases ; Preparation of packs for obstetrical operations ; Sterilization of instruments ; Preparation of animals ; Intrauterine medication ; Assistance to parturient animals ; Care of new born ; Nomenclature of gynecological and obstetrical conditions.

Practical

Intrauterine medication; Use of Vaginoscope; Preparation of packs for obstetrical cases; Preparation of different stains for semen evaluation and cytology; Assistance in obstetrical cases.

VLDD-XIII INTRODUCTION TO REPRODUCTION, ARTIFICIAL INSEMINATION AND STORAGE OF SEMEN

1+1

Theory

Structure and function of reproductive organs of cow, horse, dog, pig and poultry; Estrous cycles of domestic animals; Signs of heat in domestic animals; Gestation periods of domestic animals; Symptoms of parturition in cattle, buffaloes, sheep, goat and pigs; Advantages and limitations of the technique of Artificial Insemination.

Practical

Rectal palpation of reproductive organs; Training of bulls; Preparation of artificial vagina for semen collection; Semen collection and evaluation; Preparation of diluters and extension of semen; Demonstration of semen freezing techniques; Artificial Insemination technique with liquid/frozen semen; Sterilization of glass wares/laboratory wares used in A.I. work.

VLDD-XIV INTRODUCTION TO CLINICAL PROCEDURES & ANIMAL FARM PRACTICES

0+6

Practical

Recording of temperature, pulse and respiration; Methods of drug administration; Practice of compounding and dispensing of various drugs; Use of trocar and canula, stomach tube and probang; Intramammary infusions; Dressing of wounds; Preparation of commonly used ointments, tinctures, lotions/solutions etc; Acquaintance with various gynecological and surgical instruments with their uses; Sterilization of instruments etc.; Demonstration of gynecological and surgical problems; Preparation and handling of surgical pack; Introduction to X-ray procedure; Collection of clinical material for laboratory examination; Burdizzo castration of calf, sheep and goat. Prophylaxis measure against common domestic animals & Poultry diseases.

Animal Breeding:-

Cattle

1. Phenotypic characterization of important breeds.
2. Feeding, management & disease control in young calves.
3. Animal identification and performance recording.
4. General management & feeding.
5. Elementary knowledge and schedule of vaccination.

Poultry

1. Different indigenous breeds of poultry and their characteristics.
2. Management of hatchery.
3. Brooding of chicks from 0-6 weeks.
4. Management of layers in the layer house.
5. Demonstration of A.I.

Subject: Regarding acceptance and validity of Animal Husbandry Diploma from Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences Bikaner for the post of VLDA.

Reference: Your letter no. Nil dated 01.06.2017.

Memo

With reference to your reference cited letter, you are hereby informed that the department of Animal Husbandry & Dairying Haryana has examined your representation keeping in view the judgment of Hon'ble High Court of Punjab & Haryana at Chandigarh dated 17.05.2017 in CWP No. 25485 of 2015 (O&M) & 56 others. The relevant part of the judgment, concerned with your representation in the bunch matter of 57 Civil Writ Petitions is reproduced as below:-

"(17) There are some writ petitions including CWP No. 24664, 25266 of 2015; 5346 of 2016 claiming that the institutions from where the petitioners have obtained their Diplomas are duly recognized under Appendix-E of the 1999 Rules. The writ petitioners, however, have not been treated eligible for the post of VLDA due to difference in nomenclature of the Course. Liberty is granted to such writ petitioners to represent to the Director General, Animal Husbandry, Haryana, who, in turn, is directed to constitute a team of three experts to examine the curriculum/ syllabus of these Diplomas vis-a-vis Diplomas in VLDA Course and if it is found that their diploma Courses are broadly the same, let these petitioners be treated eligible irrespective of the nomenclature of the Diplomas."

In compliance of the above orders passed by Hon'ble High Court, the Director General Animal Husbandry & Dairying Haryana constituted a team of three experts, vide Endst. No. 25605-09 dated 10.08.2017, to examine the curriculum/ syllabus of the diplomas obtained from the institutions included in Appendix-E of Haryana Veterinary Headquarter & Field Group-C Service Rules 1999 vis-à-vis Veterinary Livestock Development Diploma imparted by Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences (LUVAS) Hisar. The expert committee so constituted has submitted its report through Registrar Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences (LUVAS) Hisar vide Endst. No. Regr./A-1/2017/4001-02+E dated 06.09.2017.

You had filed CWP No. 1495 of 2017 and had passed your Animal Husbandry Diploma from Shri Sant Ram Das Tyagi Livestock Assistant Training Institute, Deeg Bharatpur, a private institute affiliated to Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner. In the report (copy of which is enclosed), the expert committee has compared the academic course contents & affiliation guidelines of the Animal Husbandry Diploma imparted by

RAJUVAS, Bikaner with that of Veterinary Livestock Development Diploma imparted by LUVAS, Hisar.

As per report of the expert committee the subjects of Anatomy & Physiology are lacking in the all important topic of Central Nervous System in the course contents of RAJUVAS Bikaner, which is of utmost importance in providing minor veterinary services as envisaged in Section 30(b) of Indian Veterinary Council Act 1984. The expert committee in its report has further observed that the subjects of English & Animal Products Technology are totally missing in the course contents of RAJUVAS Bikaner. The missing subject of English in RAJUVAS course content creates practical problems in dispensing and delivery of different medications prescribed by qualified registered veterinary practitioners in the state. Likewise the subject of Animal Products Technology (which is missing in RAJUVAS course content) is quite essential for making dairy enterprise more enumerative for farmers as well as to provide safe quality food to consumers at an affordable price. Expert committee has also observed that RAJUVAS Bikaner course content is devoid of equine related topics, which is essential in providing minor veterinary services to the equine species. The topic of Bio-medical waste management is missing in the Bikaner course content, without which the bio medical waste generated during curative, prophylactic, diagnostic and breeding services provided to animals cannot be managed. The affiliation guidelines for the institutions desirous of affiliation with LUVAS Hisar are more elaborate & descriptive as compared to RAJUVAS Bikaner, which ensure quality education during the course of diploma. Apart from the above, there are many other aspects of course content & syllabus lacking in the diploma course imparted by Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner in comparison with that of Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Hisar.

Significant differences have been reported by the committee of experts, which infers that curriculum & syllabus of the 2 years diploma course by LUVAS Hisar is more descriptive, elaborate, practical approach oriented and fulfil the requirement of Haryana Govt. for the implementation of its notified minor veterinary services and is as per requirement of the Haryana State plans, schemes and programmes in Animal Husbandry sector.

As per report of the expert committee the curriculum and syllabus of the Animal Husbandry Diploma imparted by Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences (RAJUVAS) Bikaner is significantly different from that of Veterinary Livestock Development Diploma imparted by Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences (LUVAS) Hisar and does not fulfil the requisite qualification for the post of Veterinary Livestock Development Assistant (VLDA) in Haryana. Therefore, on the basis of report of the expert committee you are not eligible for the said post.

EXPERT COMMITTEE REPORT

In view of the Judgment of Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court Chandigarh dated 17.05.2017 in CWP No. 25185 of 2015, a committee of three experts has been constituted vide Director General Animal Husbandry & Dairying, Haryana Panchkula U.O. No. 7-14 dated 14.06.2017. The committee has been assigned with the task of comparing the curriculum/syllabus of the diploma passed by representing petitioners from institutions which are affiliated with the universities included in Appendix-E of the Haryana Veterinary Headquarter and Field (Group-C) Services, Rules 1999 as amended in 2011 and submitting its opinion, whether, the two diplomas in question are broadly same or not.

The members of the committee of three experts are as below:-

1. Dr. Kalyan Singh Joint Director (Admn.) Directorate of Animal Husbandry & Dairying Haryana, Pashudhan Bhawan Panchkula.
2. Dr. R.K. Malik, Professor Department of V.P.B., Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary Sciences & Animal Husbandry, Hisar.
3. Dr. D.S. Bidhan, Asstt. Professor Department of L.P.M., Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary Sciences & Animal Husbandry, Hisar.

From the perusal of representations received from petitioners, there is only one university which has been included in the Appendix-E of Haryana Veterinary Headquarter and Field (Group-C) Services, Rules 1999 amended in 2011, which is Rajasthan Agricultural University Bikaner (Rajasthan), the nomenclature of which was changed to Swami Keshwanand Agricultural University Bikaner, which was bifurcated into Swami Keshwanand Agricultural University Bikaner & Rajasthan University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences Bikaner. Therefore, the assigned task of comparison of curriculum/syllabus of the diplomas in question has been restricted to between Institute of Para Veterinary Sciences, Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary Sciences & Animal Husbandry Hisar (Haryana) & Rajasthan University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences Bikaner (Rajasthan).

4/10/17 The methodology adopted while preparing the expert committee report, following aspects of the two diploma courses in question have been thoroughly scrutinized.

- 5/10/17 i. Comparison of the syllabus of two years Veterinary Livestock Development Diploma (VLDD) imparted by the institutions affiliated with Institute of Para Veterinary Sciences, Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary Sciences &

Animal Husbandry, Hisar (Annexure-1) with that of two years Animal Husbandry Diploma (AHD) imparted by institutions affiliated with Rajasthan University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences Bikaner (Annexure-2).

- ii. Comparison of the affiliation guidelines for institutions providing diploma course for affiliation with Institute of Para Veterinary Sciences, Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary Sciences & Animal Husbandry, Hisar (Annexure-3) with that of affiliation guidelines for institutions for affiliation with Rajasthan University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences Bikaner (Annexure-4).

For the sake of convenience for submitting this report the Institute of Para Veterinary Sciences, Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary Sciences & Animal Husbandry Hisar shall henceforth be termed as 'IPVS LUVAS' and Rajasthan University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences Bikaner as 'RAJUVAS'. The observations and opinion of the committee on the basis of analysis /scrutinization of the parameters above from i & ii are submitted as under:-

(1) COMPARISON OF THE ACADEMIC COURSE CONTENTS

- A. In the two years academic diploma course, in the subject of Introductory Anatomy of Domestic Animals, the topic of Central Nervous System is included in the IPVS LUVAS course contents, whereas this important topic does not find any place in RAJUVAS syllabus for the diploma.

Observation of the expert committee: The preliminary knowledge of Central Nervous System is of utmost importance to provide Minor Veterinary Services under the supervision and direction of registered veterinary practitioner as envisaged in Section 30(b) of Indian Veterinary Council Act 1984.

- B. In the two years academic diploma course, in the subject of Introductory Physiology of Domestic Animals, the topic of physiological functioning of Nervous System is included in the IPVS LUVAS course contents, whereas this important topic does not find any place in RAJUVAS syllabus for the diploma.

Observation of the expert committee: The preliminary knowledge of physiology of Nervous System is of utmost importance to provide Minor Veterinary Services under the supervision and direction of registered veterinary practitioner as envisaged in Section 30(b) of Indian Veterinary Council Act 1984.

C. In the two years academic diploma course, the subject of English, with credit hours of 2+1 has been included in the IPVS LUVAS course contents, whereas the subject of English is totally missing in the syllabus of RAJUVAS affiliated institutions.

Observation of the expert committee: The missing subject of English in the syllabus of Animal Husbandry Diploma imparted by RAJUVAS affiliated institutions creates practical difficulties in dispensing and delivery of different medications for the diploma holders as almost all of the prescriptions by the qualified registered veterinary practitioners are prescribed in English language. Moreover all the allopathic medicines/drugs & their literature are labeled/written in English language. Therefore, non-inclusion of the subject of English in the syllabus of RAJUVAS is a big hindrance for diploma holders in providing minor veterinary services under the supervision and direction of registered veterinary practitioner.

D. In the two years academic diploma course, the subject of Introduction to Animal Products Technology with credit hours of 1+0 has been included in the IPVS LUVAS course contents, whereas the subject of Introduction to Animal Products Technology is totally missing in the syllabus of RAJUVAS affiliated institutions.

Observation of the expert committee: The non-inclusion of the subject of Animal Products Technology in the syllabus of RAJUVAS is not in line with the requirements of the State of Haryana. Because the subject of Animal Products Technology is quite essential for not only making dairy enterprise more remunerative for the farmers but also to provide safe & quality food to the consumers at an affordable price. Course contents of Animal Husbandry Diploma of RAJUVAS lack in important aspects of animal production such as handling, storage and distribution of meat, poultry and eggs, candling & grading of eggs, milk definition and its composition, factors affecting composition and quality of milk, elementary knowledge about nutritive value, source of bacterial contamination of milk and clean milk production, C.O.B and alcohol tests, pH by indicator paper, specific gravity test, estimation of fat, S.N.F. and T.S. in milk, processing, packaging and distribution of milk.

4/9/17*

E. In the two years academic diploma course, the topics related with equines mentioned below have been included in the IPVS LUVAS course contents, whereas these are totally missing in the syllabus of RAJUVAS affiliated institutions..

- i) Salient physiological features of equine musculoskeletal, respiratory and reproductive system.
- ii) Commonly used feed and forages for equines, role of minerals and vitamins in equine feeding, nutritional problems associated with horses.
- iii) Different techniques of handling and restraining of equine, body weight and age estimation of horses, foot care (normal and abnormal hoof shape, hoof trimming, rasping etc.).
- iv) Introduction to equine breeds and their characteristics, elementary knowledge of economic traits of equine breeding.
- v) Elementary knowledge of common non infectious diseases of equines viz colic, lameness & azoturia, elementary basic knowledge of common infectious diseases viz bacterial, viral & parasitic (name, etiology & clinical signs only, tetanus vaccination in equines).
- vi) Basics of foaling and foal management.
- vii) Bandaging of equine limb, use of hoof testers, fitting of mouth gag in equines.

Observation of the expert committee: The equines (horses, mules, ponies & donkeys) are imperative fragment of livestock count of the State of Haryana. Because this species of animals has to be handled, controlled, treated and taken care of differently in a specified approach, unlike other livestock species. Therefore, non-inclusion of equine related topics in the course contents of RAJUVAS affiliated institutions is not in the interest of the State of Haryana, because without the knowledge of these topics providing minor veterinary services shall be a threat to the life of equines of the State.

4/9/1
F. In the two years academic diploma course, the all-important topic of Bio-medical waste management has been included in the subject of Pharmacy in the IPVS LUVAS course contents, whereas the topic of Bio-medical waste management is totally missing in the syllabus of RAJUVAS.

Observation of the expert committee: The topic of Bio-medical waste management is the study through which the waste generated by way of providing treatment/prophylaxis/diagnostic/breeding services to different species of animals & birds. (The lack of knowledge of Bio-medical waste management is not only hazardous for environmental point of view but may lead to zoonotic diseases and outbreaks) Therefore non-inclusion of the topic of Bio-medical waste management in the course contents of RAJUVAS affiliated institutions is not in the interest of the State of Haryana.

G. In the two years academic diploma course, the all important practical subject of Introduction to Clinical Procedures & Farm Animals Practices is of 0+6 credit hours in the syllabus of IPVS LUVAS, where as in the syllabus of RAJUVAS the equivalent subject known by the name of Hospital Practice Course is of non credit.

Observation of the expert committee: Introduction to Clinical Procedures & Farm Animals Practices is the course taught in IPVS LUVAS affiliated institutions, through which students are exposed to practical work at Hospital & Farm. The students learn practically how to provide minor veterinary services to animals and birds in the veterinary hospital and Animal farm. This all important course is of 0+6 credit in IPVS LUVAS, which means that the students are evaluated for this and are awarded marks, which constitute their academic excellence. Where as in the syllabus of RAJUVAS affiliated institutions the equivalent course is of non-credit, meaning thereby that the students are not evaluated & awarded marks for inclusion in their diploma certificate but only judged as satisfactory or unsatisfactory.

COMPARISON OF AFFILIATION GUIDELINES FOR THE INSTITUTIONS DESIRIOUS OF AFFILIATION

1. Formation of Inspection Committee for Pre-Inspection/Inspection of Institution for affiliation.

IPVS LUVAS: Rule (4) The inspection committee for affiliation of institution is constituted by Director IPVS in consultation with Dean, COVS, LUVAS, Hisar and with the approval of Vice Chancellor. The committee should have at least four members preferably from HODs LPM/Vety. Pharmacology/Vety. Anatomy/Vety. Bio-Chemistry and Physiology/Animal Nutrition/Director TVCC. The senior most member of the Committee will act as Chairman and the junior most will act as member secretary.

RAJUVAS: Rule (7) निरीक्षण समिति अपनी रिपोर्ट विश्वविद्यालय को प्रस्तुत करेगी। राजूवास निरीक्षण समिति की रिपोर्ट का पुनरावलोकन/परीक्षण विश्वविद्यालय चाहे तो किरी/अधिकारी/संकायाध्यक्ष से करवा सकती है (राजस्थान में पश्चिमित्ता के क्षेत्र में डिलोगाधरियों की सर्विसेज को रेगुलेट करने के लिए कॉर्जसिल (नियामक संस्था) का गठन नहीं किया गया है जिसके गठन उपरान्त दिये जाने की प्रक्रिया में कॉर्जसिल की भूमिका के गारे में विश्वविद्यालय द्वारा विचार किया जा सकता है।

Observation of the expert committee: The inspection committee for pre-inspection/inspection of institutions desirous of affiliation with university/college is well defined by IPVS LUVAS, whereas it is not so in case of RAJUVAS affiliation guidelines.

2. Assessing financial background of the Organization

IPVS LUVAS: Rule (5) The institutions desirous of affiliation with LUVAS has to demonstrate adequate financial strength by furnishing a bank guarantee of Rs. 50,00,000/- (Rupees Fifty lac) in favour of Director, IPVS, within two months of start of academic session. In case the affiliated institution fails to complete the course after having started the same, the money in the form of bank guarantee shall be forfeited by the Director, IPVS.

The bank guarantee of Rs. Fifty lacs deposited by the affiliated institutes will be retained by the Director, IPVS, LUVAS for a period of Five years after the first batch of VLD diploma students admitted through LUVAS has passed out and thereafter the amount will be reviewed.

RAJUVAS: There are no guidelines assessing adequate financial strength of the organization desirous of affiliations with RAJUVAS.

Observation of the expert committee: To safe guard the future of prospective students desirous of seeking diploma IPVS LUVAS has evolved a mechanism, so that only organizations/trusts which are capable of providing quality infrastructure/faculty/education are allowed to establish diploma institute, whereas no such checks have been devised by RAJUVAS affiliation guidelines.

3. Conductance & Control of Examination

IPVS LUVAS: Rule (14) The entire process of conduct of final/ end term examinations, evaluation and issued for the diploma course shall be under the control and supervision of the Director IPVS, LUVAS, Hisar.

The date sheet of examination for both theory and practical will be prepared by the Directorate which will be uniformly followed by the constituents Colleges/ Institutes. The compiled results will be submitted to the Director, IPVS within a week after the end of practical examination by the incharge, VLDD Section of LUVAS/Principal/ Dean of Affiliated Institutes/Colleges."

RAJUVAS: Rule 16 (B) परीक्षाएं पूर्णतया विश्वविद्यालय के निर्देशों के अनुरूप करवानी होगी। इस बाबत परीक्षानियंत्रक/विश्वविद्यालय द्वारा समय-समय पर जारी निर्देशों की पालना सुनिश्चित करनी अनिवार्य होगा। वर्तमान में लागू निर्देशानुसार परीक्षा कक्ष में CCTV कैमरों द्वारा छात्रों की परीक्षा की रिकॉर्डिंग करना अनिवार्य होगा।

Observation of the expert committee: To ensure quality education IPVS LUVAS has full control of the examination conductance for affiliated institutions in its affiliation guidelines, whereas it is not so in case of RAJUVAS affiliation guidelines.

4. Faculty

IPVS LUVAS: Rule (17) The minimum faculty strength for a diploma course for a batch of sixty students shall be one Principal and four faculty members(Vety. Surgeon/ Instructor) having same qualifications as approved in LUVAS. The principal must be basically a veterinarian and possess a Master degree (M.V.Sc) in any discipline of Veterinary sciences with a minimum of 10 years experience in teaching research, Extension of field service. Observation of the expert committee: IPVS LUVAS has notified establishment of a well-defined Animal Farm, specifying area, number of animals, personnel, equipments, shed etc. in the institutions desirous of affiliation to impart diploma course. All these facilities are essential for students to learn practically with respect to management, nutrition and breeding activities, whereas in case of RAJUVAS affiliation guidelines the standard is not up to the desired level.

OPINION OF THE EXPERT COMMITTEE: We have had a thoughtful and critical scrutinization of the course contents & notified affiliation guidelines for institutions, for the conductance of Veterinary Livestock Development Diploma imparted by IPVS LUVAS Hisar & Animal Husbandry Diploma by RAJUVAS Bikaner. On the basis of our observations from A to G & 1 to 6 above, we have reached to the resolute conclusion that the curriculum & syllabus of the 2 years diploma course by IPVS LUVAS is more descriptive, elaborative, practical approach oriented and fulfill the requirements of the Haryana Govt. for the implementation of its notified minor veterinary services (Annexure-5). Moreover the curriculum & syllabus of IPVS LUVAS has been drafted and notified as per requirement of the Haryana State for the implementation of its plans/schemes/programmes in Veterinary & Animal Husbandry sector. Whereas the curriculum & course of RAJUVAS lacks in many aspects (as observed above in the report) in fulfilling the Veterinary & Animal Husbandry related requirements of the Haryana State. Therefore, the curriculum & syllabus of the two diplomas in question are not broadly the same.
